"TOP TEN" HONORS — "Cest La Vie," a seven-year-old purebred gray Arabian gelding was judged a 1970 National "Top Ten" Champion gelding at the fourth annual U.S. National Championship Arabian and Half-Arabian Horse Show held Sept. 3 to 7 at Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. The beautiful animal is owned by Carla Hay, 14, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Hay of 14170 Huron River Dr., Romulus. Carla was among the youngest to compete in the show.

"Cest La Vie" named top ten champion

"Cest La Vie" owned by 14-year-old Carla Hay of 14170 Huron River Dr., Romulus, was judged a 1970 National "Top Ten" Champion gelding at the Fourth Annual U.S. National Championship Arabian and Half-Arabian Horse Show.

This competition was held Sept. 3 through 7 at Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

Carla's seven-year-old purebred Arabian gelding was one of some 500 Arabian and Half-Arabian champion horses that came from almost every state in the United States and from Canada to compete for National Honors.

"Cest La Vie" was awarded a beautiful large polished wood plaque on which is carved an Arabian horse head, and a white metal plate naming the recipient to the Top Ten National honor.

Carla, 14, who is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Hay, was among the youngest to compete in the 1970 National Arabian Horse Show.

Wearing a bright red coat and English attire she made an excellent showing in the National Championship Arabian English Pleasure Class in which some 97 entries competed.

The first section was held Saturday afternoon the second section Sunday afternoon and the finals on the afternoon of Labor Day. There is no age division in national competition.

On Saturday evening Carla competed in the National Champion western Pleasure Class. She wore royal blue with matching chaps and Western hat. A total of 80 entries competed in two sections with the final ten of each section appearing for the finals on Labor Day evening.

Each rider who participated in the Nationals must be attended by a groom who is called into the ring at a designated signal during the class competition to assist in removing the saddle and blanket to prepare the horse for inspection by the judges.

Mrs. Margie Herrmann, Carla's older sister did the "honors" for Carla and "Cest La Vie", joining the "Oklahoma whitecoats", as the corps of grooms are called. The grooms all wore identical long white coats and blue caps.

One of the highlights of the five-day National Horse Show was a personal appearance by television star and nightclub entertainer Wayne Newton, who is himself one of the largest breeders and owners of Arabian horses.

His beautiful all-white prebred Arabian stud "Nabor" is valued at $150,000.

For his appearance on Saturday and Sunday evenings, Newton stood alone in the center of the large darkened arena, under a single spotlight to offer a vocal selection honoring the "Living Legend" Arabian horses who traveled from all parts of the country to be thus honored at the show as "Living Legends" of this proud breed.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Herrmann and son, Geoff, of Westvale Street accompanied Carla to Oklahoma City via camper.

Advisory committee now probing zoning

The Citizens Advisory Committee of Romulus at the Sept. 2 meeting dealt with the zoning within the area of south of Van Born north of the Expressway - east of Hannan Rd., and west of Wayne Rd.

Recommended zoning was tentatively approved by the committee.

George Wilhelm, director of Urban Renewal for Romulus attended this meeting. He offered the assistance of his office to the committee which was appreciated.

It is the intention of the committee to take into consideration the complaints of Romulus citizens in regard to the zoning. Some of the complaints are:

Rezoning without notification of residents involved.

Too much residential zoning along the railroad.

Excessive zoning of multi-dwellings and trailer parks.

Lack of adequate agriculture zoning.

The area reviewed at the Sept. 8 meeting was also tentatively approved as recommended. This area was south of Van Born, north of the Wick Rd., east of Wayne Rd., and west of Inkster Rd.

Tonight (Sept. 16) in the Water Board Building at 8 p.m., the following area will reviewed will be south of the Expressway, north of Pennsylvania Rd., west of Wayne Rd., and east of Hannan Rd. (See Map).

Anyone interested in that particular area is invited to attend the meeting and express their opinion in

Romulus Council defers decision

Action on the method of paying for a proposed hike in sewage disposal rate was deferred by Romulus City Council pending a feasibility study by the city auditor's department.

The city council acted Sept. 10 after hearing a report on the proposed sewage rate increase (to become effective Nov. 1) by William Pritula, director of Romulus' Department of Public Works.

Pritula reported that the Wayne County Board of Public Works is asking for an increase of $35 per million gallons over present rates. This would mean an additional expenditure of approximately $83,000 more a year to the city.

The increase with other charges made for capital improvement and debt charge assessment for the Downriver Disposal System means a hike from $50.85 to $80 for sewage disposal.

The $35 per million gallons for required capital improvement program and $10 per million gallons for debt charge levy remains the same, or a total sewage rate disposal of $125 per million gallons.

Councilman William Oakley inquired if present water and service revenues could absorb the rate hike. Pritula stated that they probably could "but what about the next increase," he replied.

It was then decided to have an auditor's report on the matter, and formal action by council was tabled.

City talks with sheriff on protection continue

Additional details on the current talks involving the possibility of contractual law enforcement for the city of Romulus were disclosed Monday by Mayor Hyle J. Carmichael.

Discussions on providing "the best available police protection for the Romulus community" are between Mayor Carmichael, City Council and officials of the Wayne County Sheriff's department.

The discussions were initiated by the city several weeks ago.

Reports on the possibility of hiring an outside police agency to protect the citizens and property of Romulus has caused some "concern" in various areas of the city.

MAYOR Carmichael when informed of this was quick to state that as yet no official decision has been made.

He added that he and council are investigating all phases of law enforcement seeking the "best available" for the city.

Some of the features of contractual law enforcement disclosed by the talks are:

Economy in that law enforcement by a major agency can function more effectively, on lower internal and administrative costs.

Monetary savings through the Wayne County Contractual Law Enforcement Program are substantial, reported A. Frans Heideman, director, executive division of the Wayne County Sheriff's department.

Heideman has been heading the county sheriff's discussions with the city.

Specialized services provided by the county sheriff are extensive and varied and are comparable to those of the finest police organization.

The services of an elaborate communications system, Narcotics Bureau, Rackets Squad and Intelligence Bureau are some of the major units available 24 hours a day. Romulus lacks bureaus of this kind.

Diversity of assignment - a large organization offers its personnel varied work opportunities.

The Wayne County Sheriff's Department's four major divisions provide "this attractive aspect to its personnel. "This is conducive to individual effort for top performance efficiency, and advancement.

In turn it fosters a morale situation, which by its very nature, is transmitted to the citizenry in terms of attitude, cooperation, spirit and individual proficiency," Heideman reported to the mayor and council.

Contract law enforcement provides well-trained experienced men for police functions rather than a community beginning with a new force of inexperienced, untrained men, he said.

It relieves the community of the problems of hiring, training and equipping the new men which involves numerous hidden expenses including civil service recruitment, purchasing the administration.

Also the sheriff's department is able to buy everything from vehicles to handcuffs in much larger lots than a smaller community thereby saving on quantity purchase discounts.

If the city approves contractual law enforcement for Romulus, the Wayne County Sheriff's department would supply a force of 18 men that would be headquartered in the city on a 24-hour basis.

Present members of the Romulus Police Department would be, if they so desired, be taken into the sheriff's department and given assignments.

Present members of the Romulus Police Department would be, if they so desired, taken into the sheriff's department and given assignments.

Carmichael issues POW proclamation

Mayor Hyle J. Carmichael of Romulus has issued a proclamation designating the week of September 20 to the 26 as "Prisoner of War" week in Romulus.

The proclamation was issued last Friday at the request of officials of the Veterans of Foreign Post No. 9568, Romulus.

The proclamation was based on a resolution protesting Hanoi's treatment of American prisoners of war. It states:

Whereas no other aspect of conflict in Vietnam more deeply troubles thousands of American families than the refusal of North Vietnam to agree to humane treatment of prisoners of war or to provide information about men missing in action; and

Whereas over 16,000 Americans are now listed as missing or captured, some as long as five years, most with no word even to the families; and

Whereas numerous reports of the physical and mental torture, and the inadequate mental care given these men cannot help but cause grave concern by the American people.

We therefore urge Hanoi not to be misled into believing that we are not united on this issue of people humanity, for cruelty of the kind being practiced by the Vietnamese can serve only to increase our determination and

Whereas there has been a far range of appeals for the release of these prisoners far from agreeing to arrange for their release, Hanoi has failed even to live up to the Geneva Convention of 1949 on prisoners of war. In the meantime the prisoners still wait, and endure and suffer, their wives and families wait and endure, and our hearts go out to them, therefore

Resolve to do everything possible to enlist support and concern for the wives and families and their men they wait for, and if further

Resolve to call upon Hanoi to live up to their obligations in effect in the Geneva Convention and, to insure that all members of the armed forces of persons entitled to prisoners of war status by treated humanely and given the fullest measure of protection.

Teachers approve one-year contract

A new Master Contract for teachers of the Romulus Community Schools for the new school year of 1970-71 has been ratified by the school district's 250 teachers, William Jakad, assistant school superintendent, announced Monday.

The one-year contract provided for salary hikes for the teachers and for other fringe benefits.

Teachers were presented with the terms of the contract on Sept. 8, orientation day for the teachers and approved the fact in time for the opening of schools on Sept. 9.

Salaries under the new agreement, previously approved by the school board provides as follows:

Teachers holding a Bachelor of Arts degree start the new school with a starting salary of $8,000 up from $7,500. The salary ranges up to $12,900 as against $12,000 over the ten-year teaching period.

Teachers holding a Master of Arts degree start at $9,000 up from $8,500. The ten-step program salaries ranged up to $15,000 compared to $13,900 last year.

The contract provides for full family hospitalization with life insurance for the teacher.

Negotiators had approved the contract terms at the first session held before a mediator from Michigan's Office of Labor Relations Commission on Aug. 14.

Negotiations on the new contract began in April.

The present teachers' employment contract expired Aug. 14.

During the month of August the Romulus Building Department issued 108 building permits calling for an estimated construction cost of $781,401. Joseph B. Gallagher, department manager, announced.

Fees collected on the building permits amounted to $4,315.

The department issued 278 permits for other than building with fee collections totaling $8,481.

Residential building permits issued in August totaled 52, all for single family homes with an estimated construction cost of $665,397, Gallagher reported.

Recreation area is sought

Romulus City Council has taken under study a request that four acres of land, located at Henry Ruff and Beverly Rds., be made available for use by the citizens of Romulus.

The Romulus Recreation Commission made the request for the use of the land parcel at least until the city's Master Recreation Plan is completed by Parkins & Rogers Associates of Detroit, planning consultants and approved by city council.

..OPENING DAY — An interior view of Security Bank & Trust Company newest bank branch at New Boston, Mich. Grand Opening Week at the new banking facilities located at 19049 Huron River Dr., started last Monday, Sept. 14, and will continue through Sept. 18. Heading the new branch bank is John F. Bardon. There are six tellers stations, including a night depository and safe deposit boxes at the new branch. There is ample parking for customers.

People for Huron state their views

To the editor:

People for Huron feel there is a right wing extremist group operating in Huron Township. The John Birch Society, MOTORED and other extremist groups and committees use many tactics to get their way in a community. The most common tactics are:

Meetings are disrupted. This tactic is used often. They want only their points of view to be heard. They applaud, groan, scream and holler at the right times. If they still don't get their way, they threaten and in some cases actually start recall campaigns.

Half-truths and doubtful stories begin making the rounds. Innuendoes and untrue hints of bad things to come are planted as seeds of suspicion. They say things like:

"I have it from a reliable source. . ."

"A lady phone me today about . . ."

"I read a book about this somewhere . . ."

The strange thing is that when they are challenged they never remember or for some reason can't reveal the reliable source the lady's name, or the name of the book. The reason they can't is because in nearly all cases it is a lie!

Emotional appeals are made. They degrade local programs as indecent, psychologically damaging, immoral, or "Communist" plots.

Teachers, administrators and other public officials become suspect. They tell and pass on stories that are exaggerations, half-truths, and lies about these people. When a reply is made they accuse these people of hiding or censoring the "real" truth.

Publications are passed around. They offer books, articles, etc. for you to read and say, "read this and let me know what you think about it." The problem is these publications are all from one viewpoint . . . theirs!

Letter writing starts. Complaint letters are written to the school board, superintendent, and to the editor of local newspapers about many controversial subjects. These letters contain distortions, half-truths, and misleading facts designed to arouse and "ignorant of the facts" community.

Pressure is put on public officials. Using the same tactics mentioned before, they pressure officials with petitions, letters, and group or committee visits.

Hints of evil to come are issued. If a present program can't be torn apart they spread fear of what might happen if the program is broadened or increased.

Threats and intimidation become commonplace. People are threatened (frequently by telephone) with exposure of some unknown past occurrence that the caller won't tell about. Threatened recall elections of public officials are also among the common tactics.

The John Birch Society is a national semi-secret political organization. The society says that it aims to alert the country to the "menace of Communism". Its leaders believe America has the wrong leaders, wrong legislation, and wrong social structures. Anything that is wrong to a Bircher, they label "Communist". In fact, the society is against just about every economic, social, and political advance the country has made in recent decades.

Birchers deplore almost every advance in educational methods since the days of the little red schoolhouse and the hickory stick. They want to "get back to the fundamentals" with "traditional" teaching methods.

Huron residents beware. This disease is spreading. All of these tactics have been and are being used in our community. These tactics were first used on our school board administrators, and teachers. Indications are they are now moving out into other areas of the township.

We must stem the tide! Demand and get first hand information of your districts programs. Inform yourself, by visiting or communicating with the person or persons involved, about the issues. Never assume that these opponents are a small vocal group who can't overturn the majority. They can and have done this as the last two local elections prove. Make the opponents support their stores with facts and names of people and places where these "incidents" happened. Make them produce documented evidence. Then check it out for yourself.

The ultimate result of the tactics in a school system is to restrict the learning of children to confine it to bigotry, distrust, and fear. Children must go to school this year knowing that their parents, their teachers, their administrators and their school board members care about them. They will never learn happily if they are brain-washed at home about the horrors of the unamerican, dirty-minded, ignorant teachers they have.

You good people of the silent majority, now is the time to be heard! Fight the lies! Make your neighbors tell the truth! Attend your township and school board meetings! Make your community a center of learning, not a center of hate!

Huron boards should reach an agreement

To The Editor:

After much pondering and studying of all the facts presently at my disposal, I feel I am obliged, as only one member of the Huron Township Board, to make the following statement and commitment.

As most of our citizens are aware, we, the Huron Township Board, are presently involved in litigation with the Huron School Board.

The issue of contention is the Sewer Tap Fee, set by the Township Board, to be assessed the School District. Based on the Sewer Ordinance, the fee is to be $66,500. The School Board contends that this is excessive.

After much discussion by both boards, individually and collectively, no agreement to satisfy both boards was reached. So, we presently have the litigation which is costing substantial legal fees. It is my contention that we, as citizens of the same community, should be able to sit down and reach an agreeable solution without paying outsiders to do it for us.

Citizens Committee directs questions

In regard to the letter from Mr. Pershing on Wednesday, 8-26.

True, Mr. Pershing, Dr. Kromer or any other administrator is not expected to work 12 months of the year without any vacation. It just so happens that he is dedicated to his profession.

He was willing to give up his vacation to help and save our schools some money. We have very few dedicated people such as this left in our system. It is hard to be dedicated, because all of the dedicated teachers get pushed around, and, I might add, are willing to be pushed around as long as it is going to be beneficial for the students.

Some of our teachers and a few administrators in the Huron school district could care less about the students. They would rather feather their own pockets. These so-called "educators" will soon be weeded out by our organization.

Question, Mr. Pershing. "Why is it that Dr. Kromer was hired as an assistant administrator and had to show us how to save money and make scheduling easier? Why does he now have to step down and let our older administrators take credit for the things they didn't take time for, or was it too complicated for them to figure out?"

As for the Level I Program. Did it ever occur to you, Mr. Pershing, that these rooms could be run at the expense of the government?

As long as a teacher has six hours of reading credit, a Bachelors Degree and had one successful year of teaching, (a minimum requirement) these rooms would not cost our system anything.

If you are not familiar with government funds, please write to Lansing and obtain your information. Don't rely on censored materials from our superintendent's office.

Another thing, Mr. Pershing, if our kindergarten teachers would see to it that the following concepts are covered and learned we would need only one or possibly two of these rooms, for slow maturation cases.

Likenesses, differences, beginning sounds, color words, numbers-count to 100, add and subtract numbers to 10, rhythm games (music teachers?), printing alphabet, name etc., games for muscular coordination (gym teachers?), and memorization of simple rhymes.

Thank you for your interest Mr. Pershing. If you have anything else you would like to know about, don't hesitate to ask.

Schools forget to send bus notices

TO THE EDITOR:

I live in Briarwood Townhouses and there is no doubt, most people remember the issue of the board of education bussing our children to Merriman Elementary School.

In spite of the fact we were told why this was done, most of the residents still felt resentment against the decision.

However, time has a way of healing most wounds unless they are picked open and reinfected. To make a long story short, why was the matter of sending out bus notices forgotten about? Our children walked to school last year, so this was the first year for busses for our children.

We were told by the Romulus Reporter to expect a letter stating from the Board of Education where and what time the busses would be here. We waited until Tuesday, Sept. 8, and still nothing in the mail. We called about it and was told it slipped their mind.

Although the administration apologized for their mistake, it didn't soothe the nerves of most parents. Consequently, Briarwood had to run off copies of the schedules and pass them out to the 379 families living here.

We really wouldn't have begrudged doing this if the administration had called and asked us to do this because they had gotten too busy to do it themselves. However, they didn't even remember the whole business period!

Yes, you might say, people always have something to complain about but a little courtesy towards your fellow neighbors can go a long way.

Children help MS MD drive

To the editor:

On Monday, September 7 during the Jerry Lewis Telethon for Muscular Dystrophy, there was a group of people in the Briarwood Townhouses going door to door collecting money for the Muscular Dystrophy campaign.

The nice thing about this, it was all spontaneous. Nobody had asked them to do it. Through the efforts of Alison Ziebmowicz and Audrey Steinez, and the help of Laura Jacobs, 8; James Jacobs, 6; and Debbie Jacobs, 5; they got started at 11 a.m. and by 2 p.m., three hours later, they had collected $102. This was a small amount but very helpful to make up the total figure of over five million dollars collected in the 20-hour telethon. Especially considering it was a holiday weekend and most people were not home.

If it were not for the efforts of people who live in Briarwood and other subdivisions in our city and county process in medicine and other achievements would not be possible.

I'm sure these people do not mind if I say THANK-YOU to you from them.

URBAN RENEWAL ASSISTANT — George Wilhelm, director of Romulus's Urban Renewal Program; points out one of the initial phases of Romulus Urban Renewal Program to his new assistant Gikendall T. Phenix, 29, of 6023 S. Wayne Rd., Romulus. Phenix replaces Leonard J. Folmar, who was elected Romulus city clerk in May 7 charter election. Romulus's UR program involves more than 500 acres located in the Wayne-Beverly Rds., area.

Romulus gets UR assistant

The appointment of a new Urban Renewal Assistant to the staff of Romulus' Urban Renewal Office was announced Monday by George Wilhelm, director.

The new assistant is Gikendall (Guy) T. Phenix, 29, of 6023 S. Wayne Rd. He fills the vacancy caused by the election of Leonard J. Folmar as Romulus City Clerk in the special May 7 Charter Election.

Phenix, who was born in Weirton, West Virginia, arrived in Romulus in 1945. He is a graduate of Romulus Senior High School (1960) and has attended Ferris State College and Concordia Lutheran School, Ann Arbor.

He and his wife, Lois, are parents of two children: Mignon, 9; and Trena, 8.

Romulus' Urban Renewal office is now in the midst of an Urban Renewal Re-development Program embracing 575 acres of land, located in the Wayne-Beverly Rds., area.

The initial phase of the program, now underway, involves 175 of the 575 acres.

Wilhelmi reports that his office is waiting for U.S. approval on a federal-city contract to proceed.

Researchers seek tree resistant to Dutch elm disease

A collection of elm trees from all over the world is the basis of Michigan State University research aimed at finding species of elms which are resistant to Dutch elm disease.

Over 600 seed lots were obtained in the summer of 1968 from such areas as Asia, Russia, Rumania, Czechoslovakia, Japan, Pakistan, India, Holland and Italy.

MSU forestry research workers, headed by Dr. J. W. Wright, planted the seed lots as soon as they arrived on campus.

This spring — two years after planting — the 30,000 individual elm trees of 10 different species were inoculated with Dutch elm disease. Initial indications of which elm tree strains carry some resistance to the disease will be available in 1971, according to Gary Long, assistant to Dr. Wright.

In about five years MSU researchers hope to have resistant trees they can recommend for planting.

"Even then we won't be able to give 100 percent assurance that the trees won't catch Dutch elm disease and die," says Long. "Mostly it's just increasing the odds in favor of survival."

"If we were to shoot for a variety that was 100 percent resistant, we would probably have to do 40 years' worth of research."

County commissioners consider crime aids

Proposed expansion of the Wayne County Metro Squad and two other programs designed to improve law enforcement and justice have been approved by the most important committee of the county — the Board of Commissioners.

The Ways and Means Committee which consists of all 26 commissioners, acted at a meeting Sept. 10. The committee approved.

An application for $138,314 in Federal funds which would finance enlargement of the highly-successful Metro Squad next fiscal year. The undercover unit of Sheriff's deputies and municipal police has confiscated an estimated $8-million worth of marijuana since being authorized by the county board last May.

An application to the Michigan Commission on Crime and Delinquency for $50,150 in Federal Omnibus Crime Bill funds to help support a new "Pre-trial Release and Citizen Custodial Project" at Detroit Recorder's Court. The program would cost a total of $100,529, with $50,379 coming from the Detroit Model Cities program.

Approval of the grant application for the Metro Squad would finance 60 percent of its operation for the entire next fiscal year and add two patrolmen to its core staff of eight officers.

Complete computerization of jail record keeping has been under development for nearly a year by outside consultants and county officials.

Office and would also link up with the Detroit police computer system and an envisioned county data processing network.

Under the pre-trial release program planned for Recorder's Court, persons awaiting trial for minor offenses would be released on their personal recognizance if screening indicated they were likely to appear for trial. Many such persons presently are jailed while awaiting trial because they cannot raise bond money.

Those released under the program would receive follow-up assistance such as job placement, medical help and legal counseling, in an effort to keep them from becoming repeat offenders.

The Ways and Means Committee also recommended that the board earmark $12,500 for overtime pay for Sheriff's deputies assigned to assist local police in emergencies. The funds will cover $5,200 in overtime

In our opinion

Politicians, schools failing in one area

It is about time that a lot of grown-ups, especially politicians and the heads of our educational systems, from the primary grades to our colleges and universities, took a good look at what they are failing to teach... pride in the United States of America, its constitutional government and individual opportunity under our economic system.

What can be expected of our young people when in political circles they continually hear attacks on U.S. enterprise?

Rarely is there a word about the merit of the U.S. free market, capitalistic system that has made our progress possible.

No wonder our young people are confused.

Try to find an address by a congressman, a college president or a school superintendent that forthrightly stands up for fundamental principles that underlie our free enterprise system as contrasted with an all-powerful bureaucracy that smothers individual opportunity. They seem afraid to support our heritage.

Don't blame the young people for downgrading our constitutional government. They are simply reflecting a lack of understanding which results from failure of leadership in our schools and legislative halls to glorify the individual freedom and opportunity that were given us by our forefathers, instead of serfdom and dependence under a socialized state.

Turning to new season

As the days of summer wane and the sun dips below the horizon a little earlier each evening, we know that nature is sending out its first gentle warning of the approach of a new season.

On Sept. 23, the sun crosses an imaginary line and Autumn begins. For many parts of the world, Autumn is a season of high color. The leaves of the trees, as they don their most brilliant hues, seem to consciously strive to outdo each other in attracting the attention of passers-by. Legendary visions of a harvest moon and corn shucks usher in the spirit of Halloween.

In the "South 48" Jack Frost treads softly bringing color and briskness to the scene. Since Alaska has been added to the roster of states it is fitting to note that Autumn steals across the North with sharper but equally fascinating changes. Those who know say that Alaska, in the fall, is enchanting.

But then, what season of our great nation is not, as we turn the corner of a new season.

Routine: Annual money bill parade

By EDWARD MAHALAK
State Representative, 38th District

One of the routines of any legislative year is the annual parade of appropriations bills. These bills are necessary to pay the cost of government. They are introduced, funneled through the appropriations committee and sifted in debate in both the House and Senate.

Often the two chambers differ in their versions of appropriations bills. When that happens these differences must be worked out, in some cases in a special House-Senate conference committee.

Appropriations bills are time consuming and do not always have smooth sailing. There is also a time element. The bills should be passed before July 1, when the new fiscal year starts.

One of the biggest and hottest appropriations bills is, year in and year out, the state school aid bill.

This year's school aid measure was particularly notable for two reasons. First, it was the largest in Michigan history... a total of $969,326,000. Second, the bill for the first time included funds for aid to non-public schools. This aid would be limited to no more than $22 million this fiscal year, and will be used to pay part of the salaries of lay teachers who teach non-religious subjects.

This was a controversial proposal. One of the arguments against this new concept was that it is unconstitutional.

In order to meet these objections and to clear away any clouds over aid to non-public schools, the legislature adopted a resolution which asks the State Supreme Court to rule on the constitutionality of the new plan.

Another budget bill which stirred considerable debate was what is ordinarily a fairly routine measure. It supplies money for various state special grants and budget transfers. This year, however, it included a grant of $5 million for the financially-troubled city of Detroit. The money is to be used for police and fire protection purposes. Part of the opposition centered about the point that there are many other communities in the state that also have money problems, in lesser amounts than Detroit, but still just as serious to the other community.

There was another new public act aimed specifically toward the city of Detroit. It makes it possible for local units of government to issue revenue bonds for the construction of stadium facilities. This will clear the way for Detroit's proposed new sports stadium.

Another new public act has to do specifically with the Detroit school system, largely in the state.

The act establishes eight regional boards of education in addition to the central school board in Detroit.

Unconcerned electorate criticized

By HENRY CANTIN

The lack of voting in the Aug. 4 primary election by the registered electorate in some of our Western Wayne County communities brought a considerable amount of criticism from candidates and election workers.

The criticism began shortly after the initial election returns were reported and is still continuing by both winning and defeated candidates.

It is sad to note that in most areas balloting was less than a third of registered and eligible voting lists.

In the cities of Belleville N and Romulus and in the townships of Huron, Sumpter and Van Buren, the lack of feeling or interest was quite apparent.

Primary elections usually fail to arouse major interest and large vote turnout except in presidential election years.

Professional pollsters and veteran election workers are quick to point out that all elections are important. To this we agree.

This fall, November 3, the nation will go to the polls and every citizen in the United States, if he or she has registered to vote, will have the opportunity to make his or her opinion felt.

The voting franchise available to eligible citizens is one of the most valuable assets one can possess. Its power is tremendous. Soon winners of the August 4 primary will be on the firing lines again. They will be asking for your support and vote.

Remember, your choice of candidates and policies will shape the course of your local government in the years ahead. The attitude that out of millions of votes on vote doesn't count is wrong.

Mayors and other city officials, councilmen and state legislators have been elected to office by a single vote.

We urge all to register to vote in the November 3 general election. Listen to the candidates, study their backgrounds and policies and the vote.

To our way of thinking such events go a long way on informing the voter about an candidates seeking to govern their communities.

A "Meet the Candidate Night" will be sponsored by the Huron Township Jaycee Club. It will be held at the Waltz Fire Hall, located on Mineral Springs Rd., New Boston, September 29.

We congratulate those who have initiated informational sessions like meet the candidates. They show community interest so urgently needed in these times.

Future of HVCA concerns servicemen

To the Editor:

I am writing this about the Huron Valley Conservation Association. I have obtained the information for this by questions to the members themselves.

I've been out to see a stretch of land on Huron River Dr., by the junction of Rawsonville Rd., consisting of 11 acres which was offered to H.V.C.A. for use as an archery range, skeet shoot and other outdoor sports by Landy Box, Chajncey Schweigert, Harold Harris, and one other party whose name I was unable to obtain.

I was told that this land was offered for after I left for Vietnam and yet as I was out there I saw that even today no work at all has been done to this land in order to make it ready for sports. Volunteers were asked for by Belleville paper at one time.

In talking to different members of the H.V.C.A. I have found out a few interesting items. So as not to cause controversy among club members I will mention no names. What I have found out is that always on the club's projects you will find that the people working on these projects are always the same people. Even though a lot of suggestions are received by the rest of the members if asked to do any of the work you get the same NO from them.

I have also found that at the last election of club with membership of 200 or more men, a little over 30 members arrived at the meeting to have their votes counted. The vote ended up in a tie between two men for club president which was finally decided by a flip of a coin.

All members were informed of the club officers' election and yet from a 200 membership or better only a little over 30 had voted.

Also I received information that the club leadership of the lowest possible grade that can come and yet still say that they are club trying for progress. They do little work that they are supposed to do and at the meeting just wonder who was supposed to do the work that was supposed to be done.

I have also found that the projects by the H.V.C.A. assigned to be taken care of by committees have in fact had the ball started to roll by individual members not on the committee at all because this member was tired of waiting on the committee to start.

There is no double many more things are to be found wrong with this club as there is no doubt many things to be found with every club.

However, it is not my opinion alone that unless something is done fast about the way this club is managed it won't be long before it is no longer existing.

Any club of the sort as the H.V.C.A. could in fact progress itself and the area in which it exists, but only as long as it properly operated.

The people of this club should buckle down and get some work done. Because this club is on the way under and because I am in the service unable to help in any way I have resigned my membership. However the people of this club can still save it if they start to work before it is too late.

'Don't you know it's illegal to pass a stopped school bus?'

Michigan Mirror Mercury pollution just the beginning

By ELMER E. WHITE Secretary, Michigan Press Association

Some experts on pollution feel the recent furor over mercury pollution is just the beginning of a major problem.

State Health Director Dr. Maurice Reizen sums up their feelings with the statement: "I think we've only seen the tip of the iceberg with chemical pollution."

"How many other poisons such as cyanide and arsenic are floating around in the water?" he asks. "Who knows?"

"One thing is certain. We cannot become complacent about this problem. It's a very real threat."

Even if no more pollution similar to the mercury contamination were discovered, it still would take years to clean up the situation.

Officials say they don't have enough information on the subject to make concrete predictions.

"The best we can do is draw upon the experience in other states and countries," says William Turney, assistant chief engineer in the Michigan Water resources Commission.

"In Sweden, for example, some biologists believe it may be tens of years before their inland lakes clear up."

Turney doubts, however, that it will take that long to clear up the mercury pollution in Lakes St. Clair, Huron and

Erie and the Detroit and St. Clair Rivers

The main reason is that Michigan's contaminated waters are fed and emptied by a large river system. "This flushing action will act in favor of helping the problem," he said.

Gov. William G. Milliken has said the ban on eating fish from the St. Clair area may go on "for years and years and years" because of the pollutant's toxicity.

Mercury has a long life inside the human body, or other living creatures once it is taken into the system.

The metal has a half life of 70 days. This means the body expels half the mercury in it in a 70 day period. In the next 70 day period it expels half the remaining mercury, and so on.

As a result, the body never gets completely rid of it and any person on a steady diet of mercury continually is building up the amount of it in his body.

Mercury has a slow, but deadly, effect if it is built up to too high a dosage. It destroys brain cells one by one. Early symptoms involve fatigue and loss of memory. If carried far enough, the condition, known as Minimata Disease, produces a human vegetable who eventually dies.

The State Highway Department is urging local governmental units to be careful how they store salt used on icy highways.

When salt is stored in open or uncovered areas, heavy rain can cause chemical seepage into nearby ground areas, contaminating underground water.

Speaking of schools

Van Buren needs more facilities

By DALE KAULITZ, Superintendent of Van Buren Schools

Because of ever increasing enrollments due to steady growth in the school district, the Van Buren Board of Education is again faced with a need for additional school facilities. This is nothing new for the board.

Looking back at the past 20 years we find that three new school buildings were built, and there were eight additions to existing buildings constructed during the years 1950-1959.

Growth of the district during the years 1960-69 required that the board build two new junior high school buildings one new elementary building an administration building and additions to three existing buildings.

Totals then for the past 20 years are as follows: seven new buildings 11 additions to existing buildings for a total of 18 construction projects.

It should surprise nobody, therefore, that once again the Board of Education must seek voter approval for a bond issue in the very near future.

A bond issue is the means by which boards of education borrow the money required to pay for construction projects. Bonds of the school district are sold at the time of the need to build the new facilities and are paid back over a period of 25-30 years.

Van Buren School districts' most immediate needs are for a new elementary building and for enlargement of the high school library facilities.

Ten classrooms have been reserved for elementary school youngsters in the North Junior High School. These rooms will not be available very long as they will be needed for North Junior High pupils.

The Board of Education, therefore, must seek voter approval for a bond issue. Current thinking as to the amount is $2,500,000. This amount can be financed without additional millage.

A decision as to when the election will be held has not been made as yet but a date during the month of February is currently being considered.

If approved in February, construction could get underway late next summer and projects completed approximately 18 months later.

It is obvious that the next 20 years will see school enrollments increasing much more rapidly than in the past 20. All studies reveal that the Van Buren area will soon become one of the fastest growing communities in southeastern Michigan.

School district enrollment has more than tripled since 1950 when there were 2,136 pupils. Expected enrollment at the high point for the current school year is 7,500—an increase of 5,364 pupils for the 20 year period.

Predicted rapid growth for the area will bring a need for more school facilities at an accelerated rate. The Van Buren Board of Education and the school community have in the past done an excellent job of providing fine school facilities for its youngsters.

As the future challenges, the community will respond and continue to meet its needs. That's the kind of community we live in.

Rights commission calls U-M discriminatory

The University of Michigan Medical Center in Ann Arbor was formally ordered by the Michigan Civil Rights Commission today to offer employment to a black nurse whom the MCRC found had been a victim of racial discrimination while formerly employed at the facility.

The MCRC order directs the University of Michigan to offer Mrs. LaVerne Hill her former position as assistant operating room supervisor or a comparable position, and give her back wages.

Mrs. Hill's complaint of discrimination had resulted in a public hearing which was held by the MCRC in Ann Arbor last year.

A registered nurse at the medical center from 1953 until she submitted her resignation in April, 1965, Mrs. Hill testified that because of her race, she was not given the opportunity to apply for a vacancy, which would have been a promotion, giving her responsibility over the activities of the operating room.

At the time she submitted her resignation, she had been an assistant supervisor in the operating room, in charge of training technicians.

Mrs. Hill sought to withdraw her resignation two months after first submitting it, but her withdrawal was not accepted by medical center administrators because of her alleged failure to develop a good working relationship with her supervisor.

Hearing Referee Louis Rosenzweig concluded after the hearing that testimony did not support Mrs. Hill's allegations of racial discrimination and recommended to the Commission that the charge against University of Michigan be dismissed.

The Commission, however, voted to reverse the referee's decision and uphold the charge of discrimination.

"This Commission concludes that discrimination because of race occurred when Mrs. Hill, a black woman, became self-assertive relative to her right to the promotion...for which she was well qualified and that Mrs. Horton, a white supervisor and the hospital administration could not tolerate such assertiveness." The commission said it agreed with Referee Rosenzweig's observations that "rarely does a person openly and blatantly proclaim his intent to discriminate. It is far more likely that discriminatory practices will be carried on in ways subtle and elusive, and subtleties of conduct play no small part in this area. One remark or act, or two or more, standing alone, may not evince discriminatory intent, but the cumulative effect of them may do so." In concluding that the University of Michigan Medical Center's actions involving Mrs. Hill did have this cumulative effect, the commission said "discrimination is no less discrimination when that quality of individuality and aggressiveness so praised in our society becomes a negative quality of arrogance and self-seeking when exercised by a black person."

Former area resident takes tour to Europe

Miss Beverly Twitchell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Twitchell, 6351 Burton, Romulus, recently returned from two months in Europe, six weeks of which was spent attending an International Seminar on comparative journalism in Omis, Yugoslavia, a small town on the Dalmatian coast.

In Omis, Beverly met and talked with top editors and correspondents from newspapers around the world; climbed a mountain to a 500-year-old "fortica" built by pirates; traveled to the old city of Dubrovnik on the southern Dalmatian coast with its 70-foot high walls; and was guest, with the other 34 students at the seminar, at a lamb roast in the village of Slime (pronounced Slee-may), a small subsistence farming village in the Dinaric Alps.

Following the seminar, Miss Twitchell attended the German Grand Prix near Karlsruhe, Germany; then toured Belgium, France, Luxembourg, Switzerland, Italy, Lichtenstein and Austria.

She said she didn't see Paris, London or Rome or the usual European tourist stops, but preferred traveling the way she did through small towns meeting many people, and seeing the countryside.

Of all the countries she visited, Miss Twitchell said she liked Yugoslavia the best because "the people and the climate were warmest."

Miss Twitchell is a graduate of Romulus High School and is currently working toward a master's degree in journalism at Michigan State University.

She is also employed as Associate Editor of the MSU faculty newspaper.

Rawsonville Woods tenants will picket

Officials and membership of the Rawsonville Woods Mobile Estates Association have approved picketing action against the owners of the Rawsonville Woods Mobile Estates Park, John M. Dwornik, board member of the association, announced Monday.

The association reported that picket lines will be formed at the park's entrance today (Wednesday). Members decided to picket at a meeting held last Sunday at the Red Rooster Bar, located at Willis and Rawsonville Rds.

The association charges "harassment" on the part of park ownership and that some of the park's tenants are being evicted for objecting to a $4.50 a month water rate hike when water service is part of the rental agreement.

The rate was in the form of a rent increase.

Committee to meet tomorrow

The Michigan Civil Rights Commission will meet with members of the Latin American community at 7:30 p.m., tomorrow at El Cristo Rey Community Center, 1317 Ballard, Lansing.

The purpose of the meeting is to release a 20-page Commission study, A Field Study of Migrant Workers in Michigan — Report and Recommendations.

The report is follow-up of the Commission's 1968 Report and Recommendations on the Status of Migratory Farm Labor in Michigan.

Dwornik reported that his association has the support of Kingsley Park, Ypsilanti; Suburban Estates, Belleville; Canton Mobile Park Association and the Michigan Mobile Homeowners Association, Lansing.

The association members also planned on picketing the Mobile Home Sales, located at I-94 and Rawsonville Rd.

Rawsonville Woods Mobile Estates is owned by Donald Woodruff and Dennis Duke, it is reported.

There's buried treasure in Southgate!

We're planning something special for the ground breaking ceremonies at the site of our fourteen story Financial Center in Southgate.

Instead of us placing the first shovel in the ground, we've decided to invite the kids in the neighborhood, the Downriver area, to do it for us!

When they "dig in", they'll find Treasure Chests containing money, waiting for them.

We'll be picking 50 children from the registration forms deposited at our branches. Fill one out and plan to join us for the ground breaking, or should we say, Treasure Hunt, that will take place when we begin construction of our new main office.

CONTEST RULES

1. All children 5 years of age to 12 years of age are eligible to enter.
2. Employees of Security Bank and Trust and members of their immediate families are not eligible to participate.
3. To enter, fill out the coupon below or pick one up at any one of our branch offices. Deposit the completed coupon at one of our branches or mail it to Security Bank and Trust, Treasure Hunt, Box 1099, Southgate, Michigan 48192.
4. All entries must be in the branch not later than 7 p.m., Friday, September 25, 1970, or postmarked no later than 12 p.m., Friday, September 25, 1970.
5. The drawing to determine the 50 Treasure Hunt participants will be held at our branch office at 16333 Trenton Road, Southgate, Michigan, at 10 a.m., on September 29th. An official of the City of Southgate will draw the names of the 50 winners. You or your children do not have to be present to win.
6. The 50 winners will be notified and advised to be at the site of the Treasure Hunt, 16333 Trenton Road, Southgate, Michigan, at 10:30 a.m. on Saturday, October 3rd, 1970. At the Treasure Hunt, each participant will draw a number that will determine the location he is to dig for his treasure. The buried treasure consists of money in the following denominations:

Two—	$100.00's
Four—	50.00's
Five—	20.00's
Ten—	10.00's
Twenty-Nine—	5.00's

Everyone participating in the digging will find treasure, ranging from Five Dollars to $100.

European honeymoon scheduled

John P. Ford, Jr. married to Miss Haggard of New Orleans

St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, Ann Arbor, was reserved August 22 for the double ring nuptials which united Isabel Anne Haggard and John Patton Ford, Jr. in holy matrimony.

The bride is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. James Whitelaw Haggard of 5881 Bellaire Drive, New Orleans, Louisiana. Rev. Haggard, who is rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church in New Orleans, escorted his daughter up the aisle then presided at the ceremony. The Rev. Gordon S. Jones, rector of St. Andrew's, assisted.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Patton Ford, Sr. of 15312 Elwell Road, Belleville. Mr. Ford is principal of Belleville High School.

For the one o'clock rite, the altar was appointed with two bouquets of white gladiolas and daisy chrysanthemums. Soloist for the occasion was the bridegroom's father who sang David H. Williams', "A Wedding Prayer."

FOR HER wedding day, the bride selected a classic gown of silk organza reminiscent of the late 1800's. Fashioned along slim lines, the toe-touching skirt featured a brief train and high neckline, both embellished with heavy Venise lace. The lace motif was also repeated on the cuffs of the sheer, long sleeves.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN PATTON FORD, JR.

In keeping with the mode of her gown, the bride's hair was fashioned in the 1890 style. Hand-sewn gladiola petals formed the headpiece which secured her illusion veil and she carried one large gladiola blossom formed into a colonial bouquet.

As her sister's matron of honor, Mrs. Don Rae Thompson of Metairie, Louisiana appeared in a bright yellow-gold linen print frock designed with a square neckline and empire waist on the sleeveless bodice. She wore a gold ribbon in her hair and carried a straw basket filled with yellow and white chrysanthemums.

Dressed in identical ensembles, the trio of bridesmaids included the bridegroom's sister, Deborah Ann Ford of Belleville; and sisters of the bride, Mrs. Richard Eric Nilan of Long Beach, California and Mrs. Thomas Seemes Corse of Killeen, Texas.

THE BRIDEGROOM asked his brother, Lieutenant James Blaney Ford, a pilot with the U.S. Air Force in Dover, Delaware, to serve as best man. The corps of ushers included two more brothers, David Mead Ford and Bruce Robert Ford of Belleville; and Robert Hay Jr. of Midland, formerly of Belleville.

At the reception following at The Lord Fox, Ann Arbor, the bride's mother received some 150 guests in a green lace frock with a matching peau de soie hat. Mrs. Ford, the bridegroom's mother chose an ice blue peau de soie gown with pearl embroidery and matching blue hat. Both mothers were presented with orchid corsages.

Among those attending were the bridegroom's two grandmothers, Mrs. Robert Ford of Hillsdale and Mrs. Frank Blaney of Lawton, and also his 93-year-old great-grandmother, Mrs. C.H. Cox of Lawton. All three were honored with white carnation corsages.

Currently making their home at 430 East 20th Street, New York City, the newlyweds will depart at the end of the month for a 30-day honeymoon in Belgium, Luxembourg, France, Germany, Austria, Switzerland, and Italy.

The new Mrs. Ford attended high school in Norfolk, Virginia and graduated from the University of California at Berkeley in 1965 with a B.S. in biostatistics. Prior to her marriage, she had been programming on government computer systems in Washington, D.C. and is planning to find similar employment in New York City.

Her bridegroom graduated from Belleville High School in 1961 and earned his A.B. in history at Hillsdale College where he affiliated with Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity and was president of the student body his final year. At that time he was also voted Outstanding Senior Man. He received his L.L.B. at Washington and Lee University, Lexington, Virginia in 1968 and was admitted to the Michigan Bar in December of 1968. He is now working for the U.S. Government.

camping at Sugar Loaf Park,

Mrs. Muriel Sproule and mother, Mrs. Frank Kellogg, of Detroit were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Feight on Tuesday of last week.

Cuts and costs

Why do some cuts of meat cost more than others? Since the greatest demand is for cuts which the carcass has in shortest supply, these cuts cost the most. For instance, only 14.1 per cent of the retail cuts from a beef carcass are the preferred broiling steaks—Porterhouse, T-bone, club and sirloin. In contrast, 30.9 per cent are economical round steaks, chuck roasts and steaks. Ground beef, stew meat, brisket, short ribs, flank steak, variety meats, shank, etc. make up 36 per cent. The balance consists of such roasts as rib, rump and sirloin tip.

Life-long resident turns 80

Life-long Belleville resident, Mrs. Gurtha Walters celebrated her 80th birthday September 5 at an open house given by her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Walters, and son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William Allman, Jr. of Wyandotte.

Held at 363 Church Street, guests attended from Wyandotte, Garden City, Ann Arbor, Ypsilanti, Spring Lake, Trenton, and Belleville. Among the 70 present were the honoree's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Dolph, and her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Miller of Belleville.

Mrs. Walters' family tree includes eight grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren.

MR. AND MRS. LARRY LEE O'KELLEY

Baptist Church is scene of wedding

In a candlelight ceremony August 15 at the Huron Valley Free Will Baptist Church, Belleville, Denise Lynn Keller became the bride of Larry Lee O'Kelley.

Rev. Max Davis presided at the double ring rite at five thirty in the afternoon. Music was played by Rosalie Southward who accompanied Judith Klein as she sang "Because" and "The Wedding Prayer."

Parents of the young couple are Mr. and Mrs. James Keller of 23888 Haggerty Road, Belleville, and Delmar O'Kelley of 22495 Haggerty Road, Belleville, and Mrs. Della Tabor of Hayti, Missouri.

Baskets of large mums and gladiolas graced the altar and white satin bows marked the pews as the bride walked up the aisle with her father.

Pausing near the front, Denise presented her mother with a red rose, her way of saying "I love you and thank you for all you've done."

CARRYING A bouquet of mums, daisies, white roses, and baby's breath, Denise appeared in a demi-bell silhouette of silk organza and lace. The lace bodice was fashioned with a high neckline and organza sleeves accented with lace appliques. The lace trim was carried out on the organza skirt which terminated in a chapel train. Her headpiece was a matching mantilla of organza and lace.

Sharyn Sturtz of Romulus was asked to be honor attendant. Her sleeveless linen frock featured an apricot skirt and white bodice with a fine apricot pinstripe throughout.

Velvet ribbon in a deeper shade of apricot traced the high-rise bodice. A cluster of daisies secured her floor-length veil and she held a nosegay of carnations and daisies to match her gown.

Wearing identical fashions in rainbow hues were Deloris

Keller, the bride's sister, in green; Paulette Sloan, a cousin from Dearborn Heights in pink; Mary Farrugia, another cousin from Romulus in yellow; Gail Young of New Boston in aqua; and Carol Michaelski of Belleville in lilac.

Twin nieces of the bride, five-year-old Jamie and Janine Keller, daughters of the James Kellers of Detroit, served as flowergirls. Their little frocks were miniatures of the honor attendant's and were made by the bride. The baskets they held were filled with carnations and daisies.

Five-year-old Grant Memering, son of the Ed Memerings of Belleville carried out the role of ringbearer at his aunt's wedding.

BEST MAN was Lieutenant Gary O'Kelley, who came from Fort Bragg, North Carolina, for the occasion. Others on the esquire side were Mike O'Kelley and Danny Keller, brothers of the bride couple; Dennis Curtis, the bridegroom's cousin from Woodhaven; James Sloan, the bride's cousin from Dearborn Heights; and Pete Scussell of Westland.

Mrs. Keller wore for her daughter's wedding a sleeveless aqua dress trimmed in silver while the bridegroom's mother donned a two-piece suit with white trim. Both mothers added corsages of carnations and red roses to their ensembles.

The P.N.A. Lodge was reserved for the reception which followed.

Since returning from their week-long honeymoon at Niagara Falls, the newlyweds made their home at 509 Liberty Street, Belleville.

Denise attended Belleville High School and graduated from Hallmark Business Machines Institute. Larry graduated from Eastern Michigan University where he affiliated with Alpha Epsilon Pi fraternity. He is currently employed as a claims adjuster for Safeco Insurance Company, Detroit.

Money spent by the American consumer for foods originating on U.S. farms accounted for 15.2 percent of his disposable income, according to the most recent figures available. Of this total only 4.9 percent went to the farmers. The remaining 10.3 percent was spent for processing and distribution and food served away from home.

Kiwanis Club to host travelogues

The Belleville Kiwanis Club is cordially inviting the public to its free introductory Travel and Adventure program Thursday, Oct. 1, at 8 p.m. at Belleville High School Auditorium.

Stan and Irene Paulauskas will narrate their travelogue, "Exploring Poland." The program will kick off the 1970-71 Travel and Adventure series which will take place the first Thursday of each month from November through April.

The list of travelogues includes "Norwegian Panoramas" by Joe Adair, November 5; "Canada's Changing Far North" with Keith McColl, December 3; "Florida Fantasy" by Dr. Ray Ludwigson, Jan. 7; "Scotland Afore Ye" with Jonathan Hagar, Feb. 4; "Alpine World U.S.A." by John Fowler, March 4; and "Japan" by James Forshee, April 8.

Season tickets, now on sale by all Kiwanians, are $6. for adults; $4. for senior citizens; and $3. for students. Checks for season passes may be made out to Belleville Kiwanis Club and sent to Kiwanis club, Belleville, Michigan 48111, for orders by mail.

MISS PRESTON

WOMEN Of The MOOSE

Spring wedding planned

This is your Recorder, pinch-hitting for your publicity chairman, who has just returned from the hospital after a lot of tests and surgery. We all wish Sandy a speedy recovery, we miss her column with news of the chapter activities.

A May 22 wedding is being planned by Tonya Lee Preston of Ypsilanti and Michael Dunayczan of Belleville.

The College of Regents committee held a meeting Aug. 31 at chairman Peggy Reese's home. They had a fine attendance and projects were planned for the year.

Social service chairman, Marian Payne, and her committee held a successful meeting at the Moose home Sept. 8. Many plans were made for the year.

The publicity committee has a card party scheduled for Sept. 22. They also are in charge of the fish fries for September. Yes, the fish fries are being served every Friday, 5 P.M. to 8 P.M.

Now that vacation is over, kids back in school, and the bowlers have their schedules, let's plan to attend our meetings, every second and fourth Monday. Remember our slogan for the year, Be an Angel, sponsor candidates get those applications in so that they can be balloted on at the business meeting.

Our deepest sympathy to co-worker Alice Marsh who lost her husband recently.

Ammonia is a by-product of coke, made from coal.

Their engagement and nuptial date are announced by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Doug Preston of 873 Davis Street, Ypsilanti.

A 1969 graduate of Ypsilanti High School, Miss Preston is currently employed as a secretary at the University of Michigan.

Her fiancé, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dunayczan of 19780 Karr Road, Belleville, graduated from Belleville High School in 1967 and is now employed by the Wayne County Road Commission.

The most popular sausage in the U.S. today is the frankfurter developed in Frankfurt, Germany during the 13th century. In this country per capita consumption is over 72 franks a year.

The rate of increase in agricultural productivity in the last decade outdistanced nonfarm industry. Output per man-hour of work in agriculture increased 73 percent while in nonfarm industry the increase was 31 percent.

Couple living in Key West

Covington-Haswell married in Allen Park

In an afternoon ceremony August 28 at the Allen Park Baptist Church, Deborah Haswell and Charles Covington exchanged wedding vows and rings.

The two o'clock rite, read by the Rev. Charles R. Hatt, united the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Haswell of 44429 Harmony Lane, Belleville, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. C.D. Covington of Double Springs, Alabama.

Mrs. Richard Baker, soloist for the occasion, sang 'O Promise Me' and 'I Love You Truly.'

Entering the church on the arm of her father, the bride appeared in a bouffant gown of silk organza over dacron. The little fitted bodice was designed with an illusion neckline and long, sheer sleeves softly ruffled at the wrist.

MRS. CHARLES COVINGTON

An open-crown Juliet cap of pleated organza clasped her illusion veil which cascaded in cathedral length over the train of the gown.

Completing her bridal finery was an arm bouquet of long-stemmed white roses.

Pink chiffon frocks and soft-brimmed picture hats were worn by the bridal coterie headed by Janine Beebe of Belleville, the maid of honor. Identically styled, the toe-touching frocks were fashioned with long sleeves and high necklines banded with white lace appliques interwoven with pink satin ribbon.

The honor attendant carried a basket with pink rosebuds, white baby carnations and baby's breath while the bridesmaids, Carol Lutsey of Allen Park, and Pamela Heinrich a cousin from St. Clair Shores, had baskets of pink and white baby carnations.

THE DUTIES of best man were carried out by a friend from Double Springs, Alabama, John Nichols. Groomsmen were Jerry Covington of Double Springs, Alabama, and Jack Haswell, brothers of the bride; Gregory Heinrich of St. Clair Shores, cousin of the bride; and Robert Sallai of Belleville.

The Chamberlin Dining Room at Holiday Inn, Dearborn, was reserved for the reception which followed. Guests were greeted by Mrs. Haswell in a peach chiffon dress with matching accessories and Mrs. Covington in a green linen ensemble. Both mothers added yellow rosebud corsages to their costumes.

Enroute to their new home in Key West, Florida, the newlyweds honeymooned in the Smokey Mountains and points south.

A graduate of Belleville High School in 1969, Debbie attended Eastern Michigan University for one year and prior to her marriage was employed at Master Craft Engineering, Belleville.

Her new husband attended Walker Junior College in Alabama prior to enlisting in the U.S. Navy. He is currently stationed in Key West.

Frances Vince of Wayne and her husband, Sergeant Dennis Vince, who was also on R. and R. from Vietnam attended the couple. Mrs. Vince wore a navy blue dress trimmed in white with white accessories and added a purple orchid to her ensemble.

The wedding party later dined at Top of the Waikiki. The newlyweds honeymooned in Hawaii after which the bride returned to the Mainland and the bridegroom to his duties with the 37th Medical Company in Vietnam.

The new Mrs. Bredow is a graduate of Huron High School and Marjon School of Cosmetology and is employed at Melody Carol, Wayne.

Her husband graduated in 1967 from Kennedy High School and prior to his induction, was employed at Detroit Diesel.

DANISH VISITORS - Recent visitors from Denmark in our area, hosted by four local couples, were (back row, left to right) Karla Marie Bang of Aalborg; Mrs. Eline Heddal of Ringsted; and Mrs. Anna Kann of Herning; and, front row, Aage Leser of Copenhagen; Erik Heddal; and Stefan Kann. The group, in the United States in conjunction with the People to People program, was photographed at an open house party hosted by the Albert Pataloccos of Columbia Ave., Belleville, who had Mr. and Mrs. Heddal as their houseguests.

Danish visitors welcomed into Belleville area homes

Adding a most interesting touch to four Belleville-area homes recently were six visitors from Denmark who were in our country with 27 others as part of the People to People program.

In the United States to examine and study our Civil Defense installations, the group's itinerary included a Civil Defense Institute in Battle Creek as well as tours of the University of Michigan and Willow Run Airport in conjunction with their civil defense operations.

During their five days in Belleville they also visited the Ford Rawsonville Assembly Plant, the Ford Foundry, General Motors and Beyer Memorial Hospital.

The Danes proceeded onto Kansas City after departing Belleville and then continued on to Atlanta, Georgia where home stays had been arranged through the Belleville Kiwanis Club's International Relations Committee and the Atlanta Kiwanians.

MUSICAL YOUTH INTERNATIONAL was responsible for placing the Danish guests with local families. On leaving their homeland, the group was to have been quartered in area homes. When those plans fell through in Battle Creek, MYI was notified and immediately saw to housing for the European guests.

Mr. and Mrs. John Quill of Ayres Road had Stefan and Anna Kann of Herning, Denmark as their houseguests and the Albert Pataloccos of Columbia Avenue entertained Erik and Eline Heddal of Ringsted. The Pataloccos also held an open house for the group following a dinner party at the Colonial House hosted by the Leland Vandecars. At that time colorful slides of Musical Youth International were shown.

Also playing host were Mr. and Mrs. Manley Baldwin of Ryznar Drive who had Aage Leser of suburban Copenhagen as their guest. The Baldwins also had the visitors, their host families, and some 60 other persons in for an open house during the week.

Completing the list of area hosts were the Leland Vandecars of Haggerty Road whose guest from Aalborg, Denmark was Karla Marie Bang.

Geneva Hester is new Mrs. Collier

Yellow mums and white gladiolas adorned the altar of the Wesleyan Church, Ypsilanti, as Geneva Hester, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hester of 37535 W. Huron River Dr., Belleville, became the bride of Wayne Collier of Neeleyville, Missouri.

Some 20 guests were assembled for the August 8 ceremony presided over by the Rev. Steinberg at five thirty in the afternoon.

Walking to the sanctuary with her father, Geneva was gowned in white lace over satin, the ankle-length creation being styled with a round neckline and long lace sleeves.

A pearl tiara held her waist-length illusion veil and she carried a colonial arrangement of yellow mums surrounded by white mums.

DARLENE BUTLER of Romulus was maid of honor for her close friend. Her lavender satin frock was sleeveless and in ankle length and her tulle headpiece was in matching color. A bouquet of yellow mums completed her ensemble.

Junior bridesmaid for the rainbow wedding was Carmen Newland, niece of the bride from Romulus. Her gown of crepe over satin was in yellow with matching accessories.

Seven-year-old Billie Gibson, daughter of the Howard Gibsons of Romulus, donned a pink satin, short-sleeved frock for her role as flowergirl at her aunt's wedding.

Freddy Densel, six, son of the Fred Densels, carried out the duties of ringbearer.

Fred Densel of Ypsilanti, brother-in-law of the bride, served as best man with another brother-in-law, Howard Gibson of Romulus, as usher.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Hester wore an aqua A-line dress to which she added her corsage of three white carnations.

The Howard Gibsons of Wick Road, Romulus, hosted the wedding reception which followed. The newlyweds later department for their new home in Neeleyville, Missouri where the bridegroom is employed at the Elvis Gordon Saw Mill.

The bride attended Romulus High School and her husband graduated from Neeleyville High School.

Shower follows baptism

A baby shower for Michelle Lynn St. Cyr followed her afternoon christening August 16 at St. Anthony's Catholic Church.

The party was given by the baby's grandmother Koeppel and her aunts, Mrs. Jackie Marsh, Mrs. Sharon Koeppel and Margie Koeppel at the former's home on Bedell Street.

Guests were from Belleville with the baby's grandmother St. Cyr and uncle Gary driving in from Ohio for the occasion.

Michelle is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mike St. Cyr who recently moved into a new home at 10110 Jackson.

Elda Bohl is hostess

The Past Matrons' Association of Belleville Chapter No. 73, O.E.S. met at the home of Elda Bohl on Robson Rd. on Thursday, Sept. 3, with 16 members present for the usual 12:30 luncheon.

Due to the absence of the president, who was on vacation, the vice-president, Irene Skaggs, conducted the business meeting. The chaplain, Bedia Woods, had devotions. It was decided to have the annual family night dinner at the temple on Wednesday, Oct. 28. Florence Sugars and Katherine Spring were appointed to plan the menu.

The rest of the afternoon was spent playing card bing.

The October 1st meeting will be with Cora Bradshaw.

Rummage sale is Sept. 26

The Belleville Business and Professional Women will have their annual fall rummage sale Saturday, Sept. 26, at the Masonic Temple, Main St., Belleville. The sale will get underway at 9 a.m.

How To Send In Wedding Or Engagement News

For newly-engaged couples and for prospective brides we have printed forms to fill out to announce your betrothal and to enable us to write your wedding story completely and correctly.

If you have any doubt as to what information we require to do a story, these forms list all the pertinent questions.

To obtain either an engagement or bridal questionnaire, simply stop by our office, 330 Main street, Belleville, or request one via telephone, OX 7-9191. We'll be happy to mail either form.

We ask that you also bring or send in pictures to accompany either story.

There is no charge for this service.

Chopped ripe olives or sweet pickles blended with minced ham may be served in a mound on a lettuce leaf for an appetizer. Surround with saltines or wheat crackers. Or, hollow out cherry tomatoes and fill with minced ham seasoned with dill weed, celery seed or cut chives.

Peel, halve and pit fresh peaches; place halves, cavity side up, in a shallow baking dish. Fill cavities with chutney and cover dish. Bake in a pre-heated moderate oven until peaches are tender - 20 minutes or so. Serve with baked or broiled chicken.

The Helping Hand Thrift Shop is now in operation for another year and is issuing a special appeal for new and used baby clothing to be used in making up layettes to bring the "newborn" home from the hospital. Many mothers lack these items to bring baby home.

The clothing should be left at the special services building, 7335 Washington St., one block east of Wayne Rd., and one block south of Ecorse Rd.

The Thrift Shop also needs items of boys and girls' winter clothing, as well as household items, children's toys, cooking utensils, bedspreads, drapes, etc.

The Helping Hand Thrift Shop gave away a total of 10,000 items (new and used) last year to needy folks in the community. The staff would like, at this time, to thank the local churches and many civic groups who supported them last year and are hoping for their continued help this season.

On Sunday, Sept. 13, the Romulus and New Boston United Methodist Churches held their own separate worship services after combining them for the summer. The Romulus Church, on Olive St., meets at 11 a.m. Sunday mornings and the New Boston church (Huron River Dr.) at 9:30 a.m. Rev. Frank Leineke is the pastor.

River Dr., and Frederick M. Hay, a Freshman student at "Western Michigan University", also flew there for the event. Carla is a granddaughter of Mrs. Morris and niece of Miss Morris.

Gregory Parent, 19, of 7291 Kempa, Inkster, would enjoy hearing from his former schoolmates and other local friends. Greg is bedridden after becoming completely paralyzed following an auto accident about three years ago. He formerly attended Romulus Senior High School. Your cards and letters would be most welcome.

The George Dahlstrom family of Walnut St., recently enjoyed a vacation in the South. They enjoyed sight-seeing in addition to visiting at the homes of Mr. Dahlstrom's mother and sister.

The next regular meeting of the Ladies Missionary Group of the Calvary Baptist Church, Ozga Rd., is Thursday, Sept. 17, at 10 a.m.

The Romulus Community Schools have been approved for a grant from Eastern Michigan University for a Community School Education Program for the 1970-71 school year. One of the phases of this program is a Community College Center Program, which will be available to Out of School Youth as well as adults. The only requirement necessary is a willingness and desire to participate.

The program is designed to up-grade individual skills, high school completion for diplomas, as well as, the two-year college preparation program. The community college center will be located in the Senior High School Building. Registrations began Sept. 8.

Mr. and Mrs. George Stanton of Ozga Rd., are leaving this week on an extended trip through Mexico via camper in company with two friends. The foursome plan to visit an independent missionary in Saltillo, Mexico - Miss Frances Nicol, a former Romulus-ite. Miss Nicol needs an accordion badly in her missionary work.

In her behalf, Mrs. Stanton is making an appeal to beg, buy or accept a donation for this worthy cause. Anyone willing to help, please contact the Calvary Baptist Church of Romulus (phone 941-0236).

Miss Pat Renke of Hollywood, California, spent a week recently visiting her parents, the Philip Renkes, Sr., of Grant Rd. Miss Renke was enroute home after four months in Spain and other European countries. She was in Europe working as a secretary to the star of a movie "Great Horsemen" which was being filmed there.

While enjoying a tour there Miss Renke was surprised to meet in Warsaw her aunt, Mrs. Frances Wojcik of Detroit, who was on a vacation tour.

Mrs. I. Icenogle of S. Huron River Dr., is back home after spending a week at Manistee Lake with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kilander of Wyandotte.

Recent visitors at the Icenogle home here were their daughter and family, the Jim Kolmans and daughter, Sue Ellen, of Southgate. Mr. Kolman is convalescing after undergoing surgery for a slipped disk.

Bureau probes

A survey taken annually to determine the extent to which people have been inoculated against communicable diseases is being made here by the Bureau of the Census, according to Robert A. Yerkey, Director of the Bureau's regional office in Detroit. The survey started Sept. 14.

The immunization survey is part of a national program coordinated by the U.S. Public Health Service.

Information on immunization will be collected in conjunction with the Bureau's monthly survey of employment and unemployment for the U.S. Department of Labor which provides a continuing measure of the economic health of the nation as a whole and of its major regions.

Facts supplied by individuals participating in the survey are kept confidential and the results are used only to compile statistical results.

Is your home going to turn into a desert this winter?

In wintertime, people in houses with flame-type heating wake up mornings with that stuffed-up feeling. With hoarse, dry throats. Furniture dries out and starts creaking.

Sound familiar? You bet it does. The best way to stop it is with electric heat. You see, electric heat isn't a dry or drying heat.

So you usually don't need a humidifier. The moisture from bathing and cooking is all you need for natural comfort.

An Edison-Approved Electric Heating Contractor will be glad to tell you all about comfortable, moisture-retaining electric heat. He'll figure your operating cost, and there'll be no obligation. And right now, your contractor's offering a $100 trade-in on your old heating system. Call him for an electric heat survey, or mail the coupon below.

He'll show you how to turn your desert into an oasis.

Brownstown development — low cost homes

A major problem facing low and moderate income families is the lack of moderately priced housing.

Anyone who has looked for a home is well aware that housing costs have skyrocketed as the shortage of available homes has worsened. The net result is that many low and moderate income families simply can not find a house they can afford to buy.

Further, factories and jobs have been moving out of Detroit into the suburbs, so even those families who have found housing must look for new housing or face the expense and inconvenience of long commuting.

The Concord Townshouses in Brownstown, are a solution to both the problem of high housing costs and the problem of costly commuting. Concord provides the opportunity to live in low cost housing near your work.

Within 13 miles of Concord are more than 30 industrial plants as Chrysler Amplex Division, Ford Woodhaven Stamping Plant, Ford River Rouge, McLouth Steel, Wyandotte Chemical, Firestone Steel, and Kelsey-Hayes could save much time and money which are lost in traveling to and from jobs every near Concord.

The Concord cooperative townshouses are federally subsidized so that the homes can be bought by low and moderate income workers. The fact that Concord is a cooperative also reduces the costs of living there.

A cooperative is a community run by its residents, who elect their board of directors. Items such as mortgage financing, utilities, insurance on the buildings, major repair and maintenance services, and recreation facilities are bought by the cooperatives as a group. Buying in bulk reduces the cost for individual families.

While the monthly payments a family makes depends on the size and income of the family, the starting monthly rates for buying these homes are:

zstonewoode (one bedroom) $89; T Oakwoode (two bedrooms) $124; Heatherwoode (two bedrooms) $133; Dalewoode (two bedrooms) $138; and Wildwoode (three bedrooms) $147.

These rentals include gas, water, heat, oven range, refrigerator, disposal, maintenance of exterior and grounds, recreation facilities.

For those families who qualify for rent supplement the above rates can be reduced further. Detailed information on the federal subsidies is available at the housing office at Concord. The office is open everyday from 12 noon to 7 p.m. except Wednesday, when the office is closed, and Saturday, when the office closes at 5 p.m.

The Michigan State housing Authority, which financed the construction of Concord, is concerned that the whole community be aware of this opportunity to live in a new, low cost cooperative.

The authority is working to insure the integration of Concord. The goal is not one or two token families but a substantial number of black families, at least one-third of the development.

Although Brownstown is suburban, 15 to 20 black families already live in the area. They indicated that they have had no problems using the many nearby facilities such as schools, churches, hospitals, and shopping centers. They added that they would be glad to discuss life in Brownstown with any families interested in moving to Concord.

Come and take a look at these homes. They are only twenty minutes from downtown Detroit and can be readed by taking I-75 south to the second Dix exit (the exit just after Eureka Road) and traveling 1 1/4 miles on Dix to the Concord Townshousing on the left hand side. Transportation is available for any day, and time if you can the Michigan State Housing Development Authority at 222-8404.

The same number may be call to answer questions about Concord.

Rotary Governor visits local chapter

Gene Rakotz, president of New Boston Rotary Club, announce that H. William (Bill) Ives, governor of Rotary District 640, will be in New Boston on Sept. 15, to meet with the Rotary Club.

Ives, who had been a member of the Detroit Rotary Club for 17 years, recently attended a meeting of Rotary Governors at Lake Placid, New York, where the Rotarians' theme for 1970-71 was announced. That theme is, "Bridge the Gaps."

Rotarians throughout the world will be working at the job of improving communication between business and labor, citizens and government, older and young people and between men of various nations.

Bill Ives has adopted as his own symbol for 1971 a picture of a polar bear in a cage, and the slogan, "Break the small cage habit."

The symbol is based on a true incident many years ago at the St. Louis Zoo. It was there that animals were first released from cages and put into surroundings resembling their natural habitats. One old polar bear, even after he was freed, spent the entire day walking fifteen paces in one direction, then backing up fifteen paces. When the zoo's manager was asked why the bear persisted in this strange habit, he replied, "He doesn't realize that the cage is no longer there."

Bill Ives feels that in this world of expanding horizons and new opportunities some Rotary Clubs do not yet realize that it is time to "Break the Small Cage Habit" and learn to understand and participate in the world as it is today.

Thirty two Rotarians are looking forward to his visit.

Jaycee luau a success

The Romulus Jaycee Auxiliary is off to a good start with the successful completion of their first project—a Hawaiian Luau held Saturday, Aug. 29.

The Auxiliary members decorated the home of Wanda and Larry Lindenmuth Friday and Saturday in preparation for the event. In addition to pineapples and Hawaiian posters, the ladies built a six foot tall volcano and Tiki hut. There were two pools with real flowers and a frog fountain.

The tables were set on the ground with a large selection of cheeses, crackers, schrimp and a watermelon filled with a variety of fruits. Later in the evening the main meal was also served out-of-doors, and deemed a big success.

In addition to thanking all those who attended and the ladies who worked so hard the project chairman, Carole Mason, would also like to express appreciation to the following for their donations:

Dean Burcroff, Mach'a Floeiera, Doug Baum, of Baum's Funeral Home; Judy Marshall, Eugene Perecki of the Romulus Recreation Center, the United Methodist Church, Harold Connon, and the Jaycees who were also on hand to help.

ADVENTURE!

THAT'S THE NAME OF THE GAME FOR CADETS IN THE CIVIL AIR PATROL!

TRAVEL...ADVENTURE...EXCITEMENT...It's all part of being a Cadet in the Civil Air Patrol. Imagine yourself being a radio operator during the search for a lost aircraft...launching your own model rockets...traveling to Cape Kennedy or Washington D. C. for a week... flying around the country in United States Air Force transports...spending a week-end in survival or rescue training...putting on demonstrations of military drill as a member of the state championship drill team...practicing your navigation with map and compass, first aid, and problem-solving abilities as a member of a Cadet land rescue team...

These are just a few of the many activities provided for Cadets in the Wayne-Romulus Cadet Squadron of CAP. This unit, serving western Wayne County for more than 25 years, meets every Wednesday evening at Romulus Junior High School, 11401 Olive Street in Romulus. Now is the time to see about joining this exciting, on-the-move organization as a Cadet in the Civil Air Patrol.

The CAP Cadet program is open to all boys and girls between the ages of 13 and 17. Meetings are open to the public, and interested teen-agers are cordially invited to drop in for a visit and take a closer look at the adventure that waits for you as a member of the CAP.

Organist to perform

Organists Dennis Awe will be featured in a concert at 8 p.m., Monday, at the Wayne Music Center, 35164 Michigan Ave., Wayne. Awe has been a church organist for the past 10 years in Commack, N.Y.

When he was 16, he was the musical director with Parris Touring Company which produced such shows as the "King and I," "Carousel" and many other hits.

He was musical director on Broadway for the Majestic Theater where he conducted "Music Man" and other plays.

He has appeared on the Ed Sullivan Show and for the past three years has been the director of the Ray Heatherton Breakfast Club. In addition, he has supplied the musical background on the organ for many of the soap operas that have been produced in the New York area.

The 1970-71 Livonia Town Hall lecture series promises to be both entertaining as well as informational.

The season will kick off on Oct. 21 with a talk by Haim Ginott, noted child psychologist. Other planned programs include syndicated columnist Earl Wilson on Nov. 18, cartoonist Bill Mauldin on Jan. 20 and clairvoyant Kreskin on March 17.

All of the Wednesday programs, sponsored by the Livonia chapters of the American Field Service, will be held at the Terrace Theatre, 30400 Plymouth Rd., Livonia, beginning at 10:30 a.m.

Ticket reservations may be made at the Livonia Town Hall, 27650 Terrence Dr., Livonia. Donation season tickets are $10 for regular, $15 for sponsor and $30 for patron.

Haim Ginott has lectured and led seminars in child psychotherapy and parent guidance in the United States, Europe and Israel, and has published numerous papers.

His first book, "Group Psychotherapy with Children," is considered a classic in its field. His second book, "Between Parent and Child," was on the best seller lists for over 60 weeks. "Between Parent and Teenager," his latest publication, is now available at bookstores throughout the country.

A graduate of Columbia University with a B.S. in education, M.A. and doctorate in clinical psychology, Dr. Ginott is adjunct associate professor at New York University in the graduate department of psychology. He is also a clinical professor at Adelphi University in the post-doctoral program in psychotherapy.

Earl Wilson is one of the most widely syndicated newspaper columnists in America and author of numerous humorous books.

His humorous accounts of his personal encounters with a never-ending stream of stage, screen, radio and television stars and many of the world's most widely-known celebrities in other fields.

Bill Mauldin has been drawing ever since he sold his first cartoon at the age of nine.

He won a 1945 Pulitzer Prize with his memorable Willie and Joe characters, depicting World War II as the soldier knew it. Mauldin's best-known book, "Up Front," was another product of his Army years.

He won his second Pulitzer Prize in 1959 for a cartoon on the fate of Boris Pasternak.

He went back to the battlefield—this time in Vietnam—in early 1965, shortly before publication of his most recent book, "I've Decided I Want My Seat Back."

Born in Mountain Park, N.W., he studied art through a correspondence school.

Since the age of five when he learned that he could play the piano by ear, Kreskin has been dangling strange powers before wide-eyed audiences. At 12 he could hypnotize. And though still in his 30's he has become well-known not only as an entertainer, but a well-recognized consultant to psychologists, psychiatrists and dentists.

Today he is the foremost practitioner of extrasensory perception and has also perfected the science of "psychosonics" (sound of mind).

'Man of La Mancha' slated for Dearborn

An 'impossible dream' will become reality when Dearborn Civic Theatre opens its 1970-71 season with the much acclaimed production "Man of La Mancha" on Sept. 18, 19, 25, 26 and 27 at Edsel Ford High School in Dearborn.

Curtain time for all productions will be 8:30 p.m. except the Sunday show which will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Written by Dale Wasserman with words and music by Joe Darion and Mitch Leigh, "Man of La Mancha" is patterned after the life and works of Miguel de Cervantes.

Reserved seat tickets for all performances are $2.50 or each or $2 for groups of 20 or more. They may be reserved by phone at the Dearborn Recreation Department (Luzon 4-1200, ext. 263) or purchased at the Dearborn Youth Center, Sally's Gift Shop and the Little Professor Book Center.

New Warner comedy brings life to screen

Bud Yorkin and Norman Lear present a Warner Brothers release, "Start the Revolution Without Me," produced and directed by Yorkin, screenplay by Fred Freeman and Lawrence J. Cohen. Technicolor. Rated GP. at the Studio New Center with matinee by Orson Welles and the following cast: Gene Donald Sutherland, Hugh Griffith, Jack MacGraw, Billie Whitelaw, Victor Spinetti and Eva Aulin.

By HOWARD ALLEN
Eagle Writer Critic

The movies have not forgotten how to laugh with a abandon, helplessly, hysterically, as "Start the Revolution Without Me," easily the year's top comedy so far proves.

Fred Freeman and Lawrence J. Cohen's 98 minutes of madness is directed with reckless abandon by Bud Yorkin and played with consummate artistry by Gene Wilder and Donald Sutherland as two pairs of twins so wild as to render Shakespeare's Antipolus and Dromio into straighten.

This wild parody on all the old Errol Flynn swashbucklers as explained by Orson Welles in an unnecessary prologue — explains how the French revolution could have been prevented and, by a glucke, was not.

The Dorsican Brothers are haughty and aristocratic twins mixed up at birth with two peasants, and the best swordsman in France. Gene Wilder is a wild parody of an obscene, insane fetishist for whom a night with his wife in bed requires more elaborate staging than a Busby Berkeley musical. He'd like to king of France. His effete, affected brother, Donald Sutherland, would like to be queen.

King Louis XVI, delightfully underplayed as a cuckold by Hugh Griffith, on the eve of the French revolution is beset on all sides by intrigues, most of them led by his unfaithful wife Marie, and the sinister Duc d'Escargot, who talks mostly in aphorisms like, when catching Louis at dinner, "I'm delighted to see you stuffing yourself while France has indignation from the tyranny of oppression." Billie Whitelaw is the precious nymph and Victor Spinetti a magnificent duke.

Meanwhile, the loutish, cowardly peasant twins get caught up in the revolution, are mistaken for the Corsicans and taken to the place where they get caught up in palace intrigues as chaotic as anything the Marx Brothers ever dreamed up. By the climax, both sets of twins are on the scene to compound the confusion.

The inventiveness of notes are passed, ranging from "kill the Corsicans" to "kill the King" to "hello hand-some?"

Wonderful dialogue as when the fetishist Wilder hunting with a stuffed falcon he will not admit is dead, stumbles and wails, "I've broken my bird." Or, on a visit into a dungeon with tortures probably originating in an Edgar Allan Poe nightmare, to a victim of a particularly monstrous contraption, "Take care."

A little heavy handedness at times is easily forgiven. And if you want to know what finally happened to the Man in the Iron Mask, run, do not walk, to the maddest comedy since "The Producers." Madder.

Beethoven set for Eastern

The complete cycle of sonatas for piano and violin by Ludwig van Beethoven will be presented at Eastern Michigan University by Alfio Pignotti, associate professor of violin here, and Fernando Laires, chairman of the piano department at the Interlochen Arts Academy. The programs commemorate the 200th anniversary of Beethoven's birth in 1770.

The ten sonatas will be performed in three separate programs, 4 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 20; 8 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 24; and 4 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 27, all in Pease Auditorium.

Laires, who has performed on four continents and will return this season to give concerts in Vienna, Paris, Lisbon and Oporto as a soloist and with orchestra, is currently artist in residence at Interlochen. He performed the 32 Beethoven piano sonatas when he was 19 and was awarded the Beethoven Medal of the Harriet Cohen International Music Awards in London.

He is the co-founder and director of the American Liszt Society, and is a member of the Michigan Academy of Science, Arts, and Letters.

Pignotti, former concertmaster of the San Antonio Symphony and the New Orleans Philharmonic, is a member of the Eastern Michigan Trio. He was chairman of the string department at Interlochen Arts Academy for three years before joining the EMU faculty last fall.

The first program, at 4 p.m. Sept. 20, includes four sonatas, Opus 23, No. IV in A minor; Opus 24, No. V in F major; Opus 12, No. 1 in D major and Opus 12, No. 2 in A major.

The concert is free and open to the public.

opening with a repeat of the 1970 Eastern Michigan University Summer Theatre production of Neil Simon's "Barefoot in the Park." Eastern's Department of Speech and Dramatic Arts will present a wide variety of entertainment during the 1970-71 academic year. Productions include a Shakespearean drama, a black theatre masterpiece, a play for children, and a series of experimental plays.

Because of the popularity of the July performances, "Barefoot in the Park" will be repeated Sept. 26 and 27. Tickets for the comedy will go on sale Sept. 21 for $2 each.

The 1970-71 EMU Players Series will present four plays. The story of an unforgettable teacher will be told in "The Prime of Miss Jean Brodie," Oct. 28 through Nov. 1. James Baldwin's "Blues for Mister Charlie" will be performed

Dec. 9 through Dec. 13. "The Visit," described as a monument to corruption, will be presented Feb. 24 through Feb. 28, and Shakespeare's "The Tempest" will close the series, May 19 through May 23. Each production will have six performances.

The Theatre of the Young will present Lois Lenski's "Indian Captive: The Story of Mary Jemison," April 2 through April 4. The play is recommended for playgoers over seven years old.

The Experimental Theatre program has no advance schedule. Presented on a flexible basis, the program is

Advisory committee discusses zoning change

The Citizens Advisory Committee of Romulus at their Sept. 2 meeting dealt with the zoning within the area south of Van Born, north of the 1-94 Expressway, east of Hannan Rd., and west of Wayne Rd. Recommended zoning was tentatively approved by the committee, Mrs. Florence Allen, secretary reported.

George Wilhelmi, director of Urban Renewal for Romulus attended the meeting. He offered the assistance of his office to the committee in its review of Romulus zoning.

of Romulus citizens in regard to the zoning. Some of the complaints are as follows:

Rezoning without notification of residents involved.

Too much residential zoning along the railroad.

Excessive zoning of multiple dwelling and trailer parks.

Lack of adequate agriculture zoning.

At tonight's meeting, the area to be reviewed will be south of the 1-94 Expressway, east of Hannan Rd., west of Wayne Rd., and north of Pennsylvania Rd.

Anyone interested in the zoning in this particular area is welcomed to attend this meeting at 8 p.m. in the Water Board Building.

State education board okays WCCC's request

The State Board of Education has endorsed a move by Wayne County Community College aimed at easing the school's financial pinch.

The board voted unanimously to support the college's request to the legislature for exemption from denial of a portion of state aid because voters turned down local millage in August.

The 1970-71 appropriations act for higher education calls for reduced state aid if less than a full mill property tax support is provided locally.

In requesting the support of the State Board of Education, Wayne County Community College said that the millage defeat and loss of state aid resulting from it cut expected revenue by approximately $10 million. In its plea to the legislature, however, the college requested only that the penalty clause in the higher education appropriations act be waived so that the college would get a full share of state aid.

Despite its financial troubles Wayne County Community College served about 10,000 students last year and expects about 15,000 enrollment this fall.

In a letter requesting the state board's support, college acting president Murray Jackson said the students would be provided with "a quality education of equal merit to that offered anywhere else in the state.

"In this undertaking the State Board of Education and the legislature must be our partners if the rhetoric of equal educational opportunity in Michigan is ever to be clothed in substance," Jackson's letter said.

American at Sault Ste. Marie confab

Sault Ste. Marie will open its gates on Oct. 9, 10, and 11 for The American Legion of Michigan's annual Fall Conference.

Hundreds of Legionnaires representing almost every community in the state will convene at the Sault for three days where the newly elected and appointed Legion Officers at Post, District and State levels will obtain direction to efficiently plan their means of operation for a hopefully successful Legion year.

Prominent on the schedule will be schools of instruction covering the different programs sponsored by The American Legion for new Legion officers and committee members.

Highlighting the conference will be a long list of honorable guests: The Honorable William G. Milliken, Governor of the State of Michigan; The Honorable John O. Harrington, Mayor of the city of Sault Ste. Marie; J. Addington Wagner and

Leaders to meet in Brighton

Boy Scout Commissioners of the Ambassador Bridge, Huron, Springwells, Downriver, Sauk Trail, and Sunset Districts will enjoy a weekend at the Detroit Area Council, Boy Scouts of America Annual Commissioners Conference to be held at Charles Howell Scout Reservation at Brighton on Sept. 25, 26 and 27.

Commissioners who are "helpers of units" provide program and administrative helps to Cub Scout packs and Boy Scout troops in their Districts.

Complete commissioners training program planning and instruction in use of program aids, will highlight the conference program. Inspiration and fellowship will also be an important part of the weekend conference.

Van Buren recount hopes dim

A letter voicing Van Buren Township's objections to the preliminary 1970 U.S. Census count for Van Buren Township has been sent to Robert G. McWilliam, director of the census for Wayne County.

Edward C. Stoelton, Van Buren supervisor reported that the census set the township's census at 12,361.

He felt that a request to take another count, because in his opinion it is too low, would not be successful.

He said that the township would like to have a head count every five years instead of 10.

'BIG CHIEF' — Key to Huron's football fortunes this season will be the quarterbacking of veteran griddier Butch Suemnick who will round out a successful season at the New Boston high school in June. The Chiefs, under second year head coach Lee Smeltzer will launch the season Friday at Carlson.

This is it for gridders

Huron, Carlson clash

By MIKE HENDRICKS

Friday night! Yes, Friday night. That's when Huron High School will find out what its football team is all about.

Carlson will be in town and they will be seeking a repeat of their 24 to 7 victory over the 1969 Chiefs. Huron coach Lee Smeltzer and his boys have different thoughts however about how the game should turn out, and it will be their job to convince the invading Carlson team just who is right.

Smeltzer is optimistic.

"Mentally we are ready right now," he claims. "I'd say we are pretty good. The kids have been working hard and yet we haven't had any serious injuries."

According to reports, though, Smeltzer is not the only high school football coach who is optimistic about the Friday night contest. This is supposed to be Carlson's year.

The Chiefs, opponents are bolstered by the return of 24 lettermen from a squad that finished the 1969 campaign with a 3-6 record.

According to coach Smeltzer "they think that they are extremely good this year. They have a strong defense. They hit hard and they are in shape."

"In our game with them last year their passing really hurt us, but I doubt if they will be able to get away with that this year."

There is one person coming back with the Carlson team that the Chiefs probably would rather not see. It seems that they saw too much of him last year. That person is Carlson's fine end, Greg Cole. In last year's encounter Cole caught six passes for 157 yards and two touchdowns.

This year the Chiefs' defense is prepared for the end and if defensive back Tom Umin has anything to say about it no one will notice the ends presence during the game. It will be Umin's job to keep Cole under control throughout the game and Smeltzer is sure that he can do the job well.

"This year" Smeltzer said "we are going to crowd him and jam him a little. Umin's job will be to make it difficult for Cole to get downfield. Last year we were not prepared for him and he just ran wild. Things should be different this time."

The Chief's will go against Carlson with a proven offense.

The quarterback, Butch Suemnick along with runners, Tom Umin, Greg Dregansky and Chuck Imman all bring a good deal of grid experience to the field.

The Chief's front line however, does not have a wealth of experience and represents a big question mark as far as its performance is concerned.

Tackle Jack Gracia and end Dan Clark have been looking extremely good in practice and Smeltzer is counting on these two to come up with a good game.

Program picks counsellors

Six young men and women from the Romulus area have been selected as counselors and recruiters for a new federally funded Out-of-School Youth program.

Dale Nicholas, Community-

School director, announced that Lowell Askew has been named Senior Counselor; Miss Teenie Carter will assist as a recruiter. Joe Coleman, Miss Pamela Sharrill, Earl Ford and Mike DeCormier have been designated as Youth Counselors.

These advisors will be making contacts among high school aged people who are not presently enrolled.

Wauer and Chuck Imman go over as Huron prepares to commence Huron Conference warfare Friday against Carlson.

Romulus to host Inkster Friday

The die is cast. The Romulus Eagles have been working out for nearly a month in preparation for the season opener with Inkster. And Friday is the day that Coach George Pratt's Eagles must put it all together, or start looking for the pieces.

The game should "tell-it-all" for the young Romulus gridders who have been troubled by the lack of an experienced field general and center. The Eagles will have to solve these problems Friday if they are to win.

The defense appears the strongest point on the Eagles side and it is probably a good thing because Inkster is bringing a line with them that could present quite an obstacle to a lesser defense.

The Vikings front line boasts two growing young junior linemen. One of these junior athletes is tackle Carl Sanders who stands 6'3" and weighs in at 235 pounds. Carl is not dwarfed by anyone in the area except by his 260 pound teammate Terry Heister who is also a junior.

The line is the strongest portion of the Viking grid team, everywhere else they are hampered by inexperience as they lost most of last year's team through graduation.

The Vikings, though do not share the Eagle's problems at quarterback. The signal calling duties are handled by an outstanding sophomore who handled the chores for last year's outfit. Daryl Williams is only 15-years-old, but he is fleet of foot and has proven that he can throw either long or short. This quarterback coupled with Inkster's mammoth line should bring out the best in the Romulus defense.

Romulus also has a line which it is confident in. The Chiefs front wall is anchored by Mike Caszara who tips the scales at 215 pounds. It will be his job to handle one of Inkster's big tackles. The responsibility for controlling the other oversized Inkster linemen will fall to Daniel Goodin.

Though, at this late stage of the game the Romulus QB job is still vacant, coach Pratt does have some running power in Ken McMann and Virgil Smith. Also reliable are Ron Kersey, Tony Hoffman and Brent Hoffman.

1st test for Emerson

Belleville to debut against Wayne '11'

Belleville coach Keith Emerson will put the finishing touches on his 1970 grid model and whether he will have a Tiger in his tank — or ignition trouble will be better known Friday night when he will test his new charges at Wayne High.

Emerson also will get his first taste of competition as head football coach at Belleville. He is returning to this area after brief stays in the Upper Peninsula and at Redford Union.

He was the former coach at Dearborn Heights Robichaud High School and is familiar with local gridiron warfare.

Wayne, ailing from injuries, is the first exam for the veteran coach and the Tigers. They will hit the road Friday night with kickoff time at 8 p.m.

The game is a continuation of an old rivalry between Wayne and Belleville. The Tigers have dominated the series. Last year after losing to Belleville in the opener, Wayne went on to its first winning season in several years. This year, the Zebras have been planning on an even better season showing, but their hopes have received serious blows when injuries sidelined three of their starters. Lost for the season is 240-pound tackle Tim King who fell victim to appendicitis recently. A knee injury has eliminated Chris Borof from the football picture and mononucleosis has struck down runner Kris Swangarin.

Emerson said that he is thus far pleased with his team's progress; especially revealing for the new coach was the manner his charges performed in Friday scrimmages against three other football teams from the area.

"In the scrimmage" Emerson said "we did some things real well and we also found some areas that we must work on if we are going to be ready for Wayne on Friday. Our biggest concern right now is to eliminate the little mistakes which have been plaguing our consistency."

"We did come up with one long 80-yard drive without a single mistake in the scrimmage. That shows what we are capable of, if we put it altogether."

Emerson cited the performances of quarterback Mike Garland, and running backs Garrade Pettus and John Thompson.

As far as the line was concerned, Emerson said, "at times we blocked real well and then we would break down a little." But over-all I would have to say that our performance in the scrimmage was positive."

"The defense performed well and the play of Dan Smith, Victor Ogletree, Keith Simons and Daniel Yokum was real pleasing in the line."

Ogletree, Al VaDeCar and Steve Billings also came through in real fine shape for us in the defensive secondary while sophomore linebacker Tony Tatte also surprised us with his fine play."

There was one event which might put a damper on the spirits of Tiger football fans and that was the injury of star tackle Mark Pellicchia. The seriousness of the injury is not yet known, but he could miss Friday night's action.

Sports meridian

From here & there

By TOM MOORADIAN

Looks as if you folks are dead serious about us starting a column to compete with that downtown who answers those love letters.

Look here what the mail man brought us this week:
Dear Sir:

I enjoy the sports pages very much but I fail to see anything concerning Garden City East High. They are a hard-working group, and deserve recognition. Hope you know I'm talking about the football squad. You won't be disappointed if you look into them.

Sincerely,
East High fan

Dear Fan,

I know I won't be disappointed. But, betcha West High fans would. And I enjoyed reading letters like this one. Or is it as this one?

Dear Mr. Mooradian,

Do you think McLain is honest?

GW of Westland

Dear GW of Westland,

I really can't say. But I do think we got something on Garry Unger. It wouldn't be too difficult to prove he took a dive,

Dear Sports Meridian,

After all the controversy and other things, should they permit Cassius Clay to fight again?

John Thomas,
Inkster

Dear Mr. Thomas,

I don't see anything else he can do.

Dear Mr. Mooradian,

As a John Glenn student I demand equal time in your column to set things straight. I was truly amazed at how Wayne football fans twisted the truth.

We here are unaware that your newspaper is the John Glenn Eagle. We feel like it is more the Wayne Memorial Eagle. Maybe our subscriptions have been mixed and we would gladly exchange ours with the Wayne fan.

(The Wayne fan recently stated that the Daily Eagle was giving more sports space to John Glenn, hence it should be named after the high school in Westland. EDITOR.)

We at John Glenn are not greedy. We'll even settle for a spot in the want ads section (that will cost you) if you people don't want to give us coverage in the sports section.

Our football team is not the greatest. But is a football team. And our players don't worry about pictures and sories - when coach Bob Lusk tells our boys to play - they play.

But let's be fair, and let's keep things straight. It is, after all, the Wayne Memorial Eagle.

And I really think you have a great column. I read it every day with interest.

Your admirer,
George Young
Westland

Dear George,

Thanks a lot. Sorry I had to use the scissors on your letter. You do know there are liberal laws in this state, don't you?

By the way, when is John Glenn going to play Wayne football?

Dear letter-writers,

Tom Mooradian

Because of the volume of letters this week, we just didn't have the room to publish them all. I'll keep them until I get lazy again.

THE HAND IS — Huron quarterback Butch Suemnick (at right) is working to prove the adage that the hand is quicker than the eye. And, above the senior QB polishes up his hand-off with halfback Glen Dregansky who also is a holdover from last year's team.

Little leaguers are reminiscing

The 1970 little league season has come to an end and now the team managers are occupying their time compiling the statistics that their players accumulated during the summer's competition.

To no one's surprise the Belleville little league program has produced several outstanding performers.

One of the more consistent stars to come out of the little league program is Herb Green, a veteran of four little league campaigns. Green, a Dodger in the National League has been selected to that league's All Star contingent for the past two years.

As a pitcher for the Dodgers, Green hurled his team to nine victories and two losses. Enroute to his 9-2 record the young moundsman compiled a respectable 1.61 earned run average. During the past season he pitched 65 innings, striking out 122 opposing batters and walking only 33.

Green did not limit his powers to the pitchers mound, as he batted a mean .392 average while leading the team in home runs with his brother Ray, at six apiece.

Herb and Ray are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Green of 44 Wexford, Belleville.

The Pirates selected their all around man, Tony Balestriere as their most valuable player for the 1970 season. This promising young player ended the season with a hefty 600 batting average while playing eight different positions. Balestriere was a member of the National League's All Star team.

The Braves were helped to their 12-6 won lost record by the pitching of Daniel Peterson. This young hurler accounted for nine of his team's victories and two of its losses.

Peterson's pitching exploits included a no-hitter, a one hitter and four shutouts.

In 64 innings he allowed only 26 hits, while striking out 121 an batters and permitting only 23 walks.

Mark Cothorn was the big man for the Cubs this past season as he pitched his team to six victories and one loss while compiling a 2.85 earned run average.

At the plate Cothorn collected 21 hits at 41 times at bat for a .513 average. This included 15 rbi's.

Paul Grissom, 'man up front'

By VICKI WANTY

Just as previous students before him, Paul Grissom, Belleville High Student, has accepted the position of Belleville High School Marching Band's "man up front" for the 1970 football season. Just as the other band members auditioned for position those interested in becoming drum major too auditioned during the band's week stay at Purdue Limberlost Camp in Indiana.

At the candidates were judged on the points of leadership ability marching and giving vocal as well as marching commands as they each led a small band down the field.

Paul, who resides at 20218 Martinsville Rd., feels that his responsibilities as drum major are "to keep spirit high in the band to take complete control in the absence of conductor Greg Heuer and to sent an example for new members of the band."

For the past two years Paul has played cornet in the band. He tried out for drum major because he wanted to try his hand at every aspect of the band and he felt that he was qualified to give the band the leadership it needed.

In preparation for becoming drum major, Paul attended a seven-day drum major camp, known as Smith Walbridge in Syracuse, Indiana. Here, Paul learned the art of giving vocal commands as well as marching techniques.

Belleville High School Marching Bands have had good reputations in the past. Paul says of this year's band "with the spirit and talent that the band has I feel that we shall live up to the past reputation if not surpass it."

Dinner planned

A menu of Swiss Steak and the promise of good fellowship is the offer made by the Hayti Elementary School PTA, regarding their "Get Acquainted" dinner, scheduled for Monday, Sept. 21.

Mrs. Donna Lee Zavitz, PTA president, announced that her dinner chairman, Mrs. Ruth Samuels, plans to start serving Hayti's savory main course at 6:30 p.m.

Everyone is to bring a dish to pass and their own table service.

Romulus City officials are among the honored invited guests, Mrs. Zavitz said. "We thought it would be proper to get to know them on an informal basis," she explained. "We know they are busy, but we hope they will come," she added.

License approved

Romulus City Council has approved the issuance of both a Special Designated Merchant (SDM) by the Michigan Liquor Control Commission and a Food License by the city of Qik-Pik Food Store.

German Shepherd honored at show

Top honors, "Best in Match" over an entry of 494 dogs, went to "Jimbets Delilah," a German shepherd better known in the Belleville area as "Della."

The prized animal is owned by Mr. and Mrs. James Gilcher, operators of the Jimbet Kennels, located at 40421 Tyler Rd.

The show was held on Labor Day in Carleton by the Friendship Kennel Club of Huron Valley.

"Della," now one-and-a-half years old, has been shown more than 25 times in the United States and Canada. She has consistently placed high in the ribbons. Her wins include four Reserves, Best of Winners, Best of Opposite Sex in Canada.

The dog was sired by 1966-68 Grand Victor Champion Yoncalla's Mike out of Jumbet's Henna, a Champion Hessian's Baldu daughter.

A THOUGHT TO REMEMBER

BY HAROLD REDISKE, DIRECTOR

"Stubborn as a mule." No one seems to know how or when the saying started. The Bible says something about it. In Psalm 32 we read, "Be not as the horse or as the mule which have no understanding." Maybe the saying comes from there.

Some people are more stubborn than others. Stubbornness can be described as hard-headedness, hard to get along with, set in one's ways and so on. When one is in such a mood or has that attitude, it is often impossible to reason with the person. At such times, the "have no understanding" has special meaning. It takes patience to try to reach an understanding. When understanding is reached, stubbornness vanishes like a smoke ring. When two people stubbornly hold opposing views, it is impossible to reach an understanding. When an issue is big enough, it is important for at least one of the two stubborn heads to have an understanding of the other fellow's lack of understanding. Signature lines follow:

Pollution level concerns HVCA

The Huron Valley Conservation Association has made a request of the Michigan Department of Natural Resources and the Wayne County Health Department to make a determination of pesticide and mercurial content of the fishes present in the Huron River and impoundments of Ford and Belleville Lakes.

Information concerning a current list of principal industrial and municipal pollution contributors to these waters has also been requested from the Michigan Water Resources Commission.

Now is the time to do some trap or skeet shooting in preparation for the upcoming partridge and pheasant season.

In addition to developing quicker reaction time, the sport will make the hunter a safer sportsman through more familiarity with his shotgun, and insure him that it is in good working order.

Hopefully the HVCA will complete plans for a public trap shoot in late September Wendell K. Howell, publicity chairman announced.

Capitol Security unit to end training soon

Thirty-seven candidates for the civil service civilian guard positions in the Lansing Capitol Complex Security unit to be operated by the State Police have reported to the State Police headquarters in East Lansing to begin a 144-hour training program.

The candidates were given physical examinations prior to the start of the training.

Graduation of the group is scheduled for Thursday, Sept. 24, and the guards are expected to begin duty the weekend of Sept. 26.

The training will be concentrated on basic law enforcement procedures with emphasis on plant physical security and crime prevention.

Uniforms and other equipment will be furnished the guards.

Pinto will seek to reduce litter

To thousands of prospective Pinto owners, the appearance of the new little car at Atchinson Ford Sales, 9800 Belleville Rd., this Friday, will be a significant contribution to the campaign to beautify America's highways. But they also will find the car is contributing to the fight against litter.

Every Pinto will come equipped with a plastic litter bag bearing the legend, "Please don't litter...bag it!" The bag is the plastic envelope that contains the Pinto owner's manual.

For several years the owner's manual for cars from Ford has been encased in a plastic envelope. With the Pinto, Ford had a better idea. It gave the envelope a dual function -- protection of the manual, plus use as a temporary, take-it-with-you repository for waste paper and other disposables.

The idea for drafting the envelope into the war against litter came from J. F. Black, manager of Ford's Louisville Assembly Plant.

Immunization free at health Department

During this past summer, the Wayne County Department of Health sponsored free rubella immunization clinics in Taylor, Woodhaven, Redford, Harper Woods, Romulus, Plymouth and Lincoln Park.

This service was offered to help parents meet the new state requirement of rubella immunization for all children entering school for the first time this fall.

Rubella is a mild childhood disease which can cause severe birth defects if a pregnant woman catches it early in her pregnancy. This tragedy can be avoided if children are immunized against the disease and cannot pass it on to an unprotected pregnant woman.

A total of 2168 children received rubella immunization shots at these special clinics.

Travel and Adventure series

On Thursday evening, Oct. 1 the Kiwanis Club of Belleville will present its' first program of the "Travel and Adventure Series" at 8 p.m. in the new Belleville High School Auditorium.

The program is designed to acquaint the public with the series and will be presented free of charge. Presenting the first program will be Stanley and Irene Paulauskas on "Exploring Poland".

Stan and Irene Paulauskas are newcomers to the travel-lecture field. However the world of travel is not new to them, as they have enjoyed extensive trips throughout our own country as well as abroad.

Equipped with a great desire to know and understand new peoples and new worlds, they possess the natural talents required for this, their new profession.

Poland's greatest natural resource is its people. Flanked on both sides by aggressive neighbors, Poland has been struggling for her existence since her birth in 966.

If it were not for the fiercely independent spirit of her people, Poland would have been absorbed by her neighbors long ago.

In "Exploring Poland", we find the people as interesting and varied as the landscape. We follow the beautiful Vistula River, from its source in the magnificent Carpathian Mountains of southern Poland, to its mouth at the northern shores of the Baltic Sea. The carefully preserved cities of Krakow, Warsaw and Gdansk thrive on her fertile banks, offering the visitor a glimpse of the old world while surrounded by a confusing new one.

Poland is a Communist country, and yet we find a bemusing number of major contradictions to this in her everyday life. A penetrating look at "paradoxical Poland" reveals a unique Communist regime living in almost peaceful co-existence with a powerful Catholic church, one of the many bewildering aspects of contemporary Polish life.

A well blended combination of scenery, history, people and places make "Exploring Poland" a painlessly educational and delightfully entertaining.

Anyone interested in receiving tickets for this introductory program can contact any member of the Belleville Kiwanis Club or write to Kiwanis Club of Belleville, Belleville, MMichigan 48111, or fill out the coupon below and present it at door.

Concerned citizens group questions contract

Reports concerning the possibility of Romulus eliminating the Romulus Police Department and subcontracting the care of the city to the Wayne County Sheriff's Department prompted group of "concerned citizens" to call a meeting on the reports.

The group, headed by Jay Dock, Jr., and Mrs. Pat McDonnell, met last week. The main items for concern to this group appeared to be:

1. Was it true that the city administration contemplates a separate contract for outside police services?

2. If so, why has the city administration kept this fact quiet?

3. If so, shouldn't the people of Romulus be informed as to the pro's and con's of each view point?

4. If so, then let all of the facts come to light!

The intent of this citizens group is to inform the public what is occurring within the city administration.

In addition to the questions mentioned above, there is also the serious question that is being asked by the group on what is the intent of the city charter. Did the people of Romulus who voted for the city charter have the intent in mind to eliminate the police department? which could lead into the removal of other various City Departments as well? Or did the voters have in mind of creating a new forward moving city that was to have its own internal departments.

This question, must be answered by the citizens and by them alone. Therefore, this citizens group that has been formed has the intent only of bringing the problem to the forefront and to inform the public of what they know to be the truth.

The first step of this procedure was that the citizens group had gone to the city council requesting time on the agenda for specific questions.

The time was given by Councilman Jimmie Raspberry, but the questions appeared to be avoided in the answers received.

Raspberry also declared that a meeting would be arranged between the chief of police, Jacob J. Koch, the citizens and some members of the council. The gist of this meeting will be to try to establish what the city administration intends to do concerning the improving of the police force.

With regards to the contract with the Wayne County Sheriff's Department, it has been verified that the administration has been in discussion with them for several weeks.

Charles R. Kline, who spoke to an official of the Wayne County Sheriff's Department, relates that he was told these discussions had been carried for a good period of time that the Wayne County Sheriff's Department desires to perform the police duty for the city, and that any further questions would have to be directed to the administration.

What does the contract say? Where is it? What is to be included? Why isn't being shown to the people?

With regards to the 1970 budget for the city, the council stated that a sum of about $333,000 had been allocated for the Police department, however, no one appeared to know the breakdown for each item, the citizens group stated.

One of the councilmen said that only the lump sum was approved and no breakdown had been seen. This is very surprising because how can just a lump sum be approved to be spent at the discretion of the chief of police!

Yet, when the budget was asked for from the treasurer's office, it was given with the entire breakdown listed.

The citizens group reports that it received the following itemized budget: $333,802 for the police department; $175,000 for contractual county police service. (more than 50 percent of the budget).

Does the 1.5 mills voted for by the people come to $333,802? If not where is the additional money coming from? What is the $175,000 to be used for?

The citizens group further discussed the benefits and non-benefits that could be derived from a local police force. The items listed in favor for are:

With an improved police department, better service, better relations between the people and the police, better control over police affairs,

Industry might be more receptive to a city having its own police force, the intent of the charter would be kept in tact, community pride and money would be retained within the city, it could become a non-political department, jobs would be created, the budgetary cost would be lower.

Police officers living in the city still have the right to act for the law even off duty giving a true 24-hour police protection. "It is now up to the citizens of the community to become involved and to become informed as to the problems of their community

We urge all of you to get the facts, evaluate these facts, ask questions and decide if having your police force is better or not than having outside police services," Dick said.

For those of you desiring additional information please call one of the following telephone numbers, or speak to your local representative, 941-2905, 941-5677, 729-3406, 941-9026.

SHRINERS PARADE — Typical of the thousands of Shriners who will parade in Detroit Saturday Sept. 19 at 2 p.m., is this colorful scene. The occasion is the Great Lakes Shrine Association's annual convention Sept. 17 through 19. Shrines everywhere are known for their financial support of North America's 22 famed Shriners hospitals for crippled and burned children and have donated more than $300-million for treatment of children of any race, color or religion under 16 years of age whose parents are unable to pay for such hospitalization.

that makes American flags says sales are up 30 percent, and his organization expects a 10 to 15 percent increase in sales during 1970 over last year. How about this? Demand, they say, is greater for American flags than during World War II."

A politician becomes a man when he votes his mind, his inner thoughts and lays aside expediency for the sake of true public representations. While we realize that the game of politics is not often played this way, we also realize that the people will admire a man who can stand up and say that "this vote may well mean the end of my political career."

BROOKNEAL, VA., UNION STAR: "In one of the trade magazines that comes into our office, we read about a fellow who got tired of those 'begging' letters that come in the mail addressed to 'Boxholder' or 'Occupant', asking for handouts for all kinds of charities or money-raising campaigns. He said he finally decided to do something about a particular one, so he wrote a check to the organization for $10,000 and signed it 'Occupant'. That'll teach 'em a thing or two, he commented."

BLYTHE, CALIF., PALO VERDE VALLEY TIMES: "Preservation of our environment is a very serious matter with most conscientious citizens, but its espousal by those seeking causes for which to demonstrate can have ironic and costly kickbacks. When the activists centered on Washington for the 'Earth Day' demonstration, much was preached about stopping pollution, cleaning up the world we live in. Shortly after, in protest to the Cambodian action, many of the same demonstrators were back mixing anti-American obscenities with more pious commands to 'remember Mother Earth'. Officials estimate the total cost of de-polluting the antipollution

Then we suggest that you join us in trying to figure out ways and means to keep 'America the Beautiful' at least 'America the Livable.'"

Rubbish pickup poses problem for woman

To The Editor:

I am writing this letter in regards to the column concerning rubbish pick-up in Van Buren Township which appeared in the paper Sept. 2.

First of all I don't think Mrs. Payne is aware of the fact that our pick-up by the township is every second Monday of the month, which is always six to seven weeks between pick-ups and this is very upsetting to most residents in the area. For one thing it gets pretty rotten when it sets out in cans for that period of time in 90 degree weather.

Well this is the reason some of us have contracted private collectors. I feel this situation is a disgrace, what with the dogs we have running around loose, we have to lock the garbage up at night which brings up another matter.

If we put our trash out on the road the second Monday of the month, he usually doesn't get here until Thursday or Friday. I am presently paying three dollars a month for a weekly pick-up. I don't know if the man has a license or not, but I do know when I called the township hall to find out the name of the collector I was given five out of town numbers and was told these companies worked the area.

Well after three long distance phone calls, all I found out was these people never heard of Van Buren Township or Belleville nor if they have a license in this area. I don't know what its for.

We are presently paying on our water bill a charge of $2.50 for meter service which is for what service I don't quite understand. The other utilities maintain their own meters. Why not put that $2.50 toward a better rubbish service which we badly need. The present rubbish condition is unacceptable to humans.

TOWNSHIP OF HURON ORDINANCE NO. 70-6

AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND ORDINANCE NO. 10 BY THE ADDITION OF A NEW ARTICLE XVII-A.

THE TOWNSHIP OF HURON ORDAINS:

PART I. That Ordinance No. 10, known as the Township Zoning Ordinance, shall be and hereby is amended by the addition of a new Article, to read:

ARTICLE XVII-A

PLANNING COMMISSION — SITE PLAN AND DEVELOPMENT APPROVAL

Section 16A.01 AUTHORITY TO APPROVE USES. The Township Planning Commission is hereby designated the Commission as specified in the Township of Huron Planning Commission Ordinance and shall perform the duties of said Commission as provided in the Ordinance.

16A.02 SURVEY AND PLANS. Where the Planning Commission is empowered to approve certain uses of premises or Site and Development Plans, under the provisions of this Ordinance, or in cases where the Commission is required to make an investigation, the Applicant shall furnish such surveys, plans or other information as may be reasonably required by said Commission for evaluation and consideration of the matter.

16A.03 JURISDICTION. The Planning Commission shall investigate the circumstances of each case and shall notify such parties, who may in its opinion be affected thereby, of the time and place of any public hearing which may be held relative thereto as required under its rules of procedure or of any public hearing required by this Ordinance.

16A.04 PURPOSE. The purpose of Site Plan and Development approval is to determine compliance with this Ordinance and Township Standards and Specifications and to provide for the orderly development of the Township, proper ingress and egress, sufficient highways and streets, the stability of land values, investments and the general welfare, and to prevent the impairment or depreciation of land values and development by the erection of structures, or additions or alterations thereto, without proper attention to siting, or to unsightly, undesirable or obnoxious appearances, and also to afford protection to related or adjoining residential properties by the construction of suitable masonry fences or walls.

16A.05 APPROVAL BY THE TOWNSHIP PLANNING COMMISSION. The Planning Commission shall direct and carry out the duties herein set out.

16A.06 APPROVAL REQUIRED. Site Plan and Development approval is required for the following uses:

(a) All conditional uses.
(b) Any use requiring Planning Commission approval.
16A.07 APPLICATION. Application shall be made by the property owner or agent on a form prescribed by the Township for this purpose.

16A.08 SITE PLAN AND DEVELOPMENT REQUIREMENTS. All site plans submitted to the Planning Commission shall contain such information as will permit the Commission to consider the following:

(a) The siting of all structures on subject property and on adjoining properties, to determine that light and air are preserved, so as not to be detrimental to the orderly and harmonious development of adjacent premises.
(b) The relations between the development on the site and the existing and prospective development of the contiguous land.

(c) Landscaping and/or fencing of yards and setback area, use of landscaping and/or walls or fencing for screening purposes.
(d) Design of ingress and egress, construction plans and specifications of streets, highways, exits and entrances abutting streets and together with engineer's estimate of cost of construction of such proposed streets, highways, and means of ingress and egress.

(e) Safety and convenience of both vehicular and pedestrian traffic both within the site and in relation to access streets and connections to adjoining properties.
(f) Off-street parking and loading facilities and construction details.

(g) Drawings and sketches, in duplicates, of exterior and elevations, and/or perspective drawings under consideration.

16A.09 ACTION BY PLANNING COMMISSION. The Planning Commission shall have the function, duty and power to approve or disapprove, or to approve subject to compliance with such modifications or conditions as it may deem necessary to carry out the purpose of these regulations, the design and site plan of all proposed buildings or structures, or the development of the entire property, the specifications of all exits, entrances, streets, highways, or other means of ingress and egress, the proposed method, time of construction of the latter and the mode of financing therefore, and the proposed manner of dedication to the public or maintenance of the same, and the location and construction of screening walls and or fences.

16A.10 PRINCIPLES TO BE FOLLOWED. In carrying out the purpose of site plan and development approval the following principles shall be given primary consideration:

(a) It is not the purpose of this Ordinance that design control should stifle architectural design or individual initiative as to particular style or architecture selected; rather, it is the intent of this Ordinance that any control of design exercised by the minimum necessary to achieve the overall objectives of the Ordinance. Good architectural character is based upon the appropriate use of sound materials, and upon the principles of harmony and proportion in the elements of the building.

(b) It is also the purpose of this Ordinance to assure development of unsubdivided or unplatted business complexes, commercial complexes, shopping center complexes, manufacturing and industrial park complexes, and heavy industrial uses in a manner suitable for the use intended and with proper ingress and egress, sufficient parking facilities, exits and entrances, streets, roads and alleys, and screening walls and/or fences and to control the construction of the same to assure whereby they are engineered, planned and installed correctly to assure the needs of public safety, health and welfare and to assure rendition of proper municipal services concerning fire and police protection, surface water and sanitary sewerage drainage, traffic control and maintenance services as furnished or may be required by the Township, and to assure preservation and protection of property rights to relate to adjoining residential properties.

(c) With regard to the planning and construction of streets, roads and alleys and incidental construction thereto concerning drainage, curbs, gutters, fences and screening walls, etc., the same shall comply with the requirements and specifications as provided in Ordinance No. 70-1 of the Township of Huron known as the Huron Township Subdivision Ordinance, and the Planning Commission may recommend to the Township Board who may require the deposit or escrow of money or funds sufficient to assure the construction of the same, before granting approval to the development plan. The applicant shall be required to deposit with the Township Clerk the sum of money estimated to pay engineering and inspection fees incurred thereupon by the Township and shall be obligated to the exact cost thereof in accord with established schedule of engineering fees, or as otherwise required by the Township Board.

16A.11 SIGNS. In carrying out the purpose of development approval with respect to the external design of the building, particular attention shall be given to signs and outdoor advertising structures which shall comply with the requirements of the Sign Ordinance.

16A.12 APPEAL FROM THE DECISION OF THE PLANNING COMMISSION. The determination of the Planning Commission with respect to site plan and development approval is appealable to the Board of Appeals, upon written request for a hearing before said Board. In the absence of such request being filed within thirty (30) days after determination of the Planning Commission, such determination is final.

PART II. CONFLICTING PROVISIONS REPEALED. Any Ordinance or part of an Ordinance in conflict herewith is hereby repealed.

PART III. VALIDITY. Should any section, clause or provision of this Ordinance be declared by the Court to be invalid, the same shall not affect the validity of this Ordinance as a whole or any part thereof, other than the part so declared to be invalid.

PART IV. EFFECTIVE DATE. The provisions of this Ordinance are hereby declared to be immediately necessary for the preservation of the peace, health, safety and welfare of the people of the Township of Huron and this Ordinance is hereby ordered to be published in the manner prescribed by law and to be in effect upon the expiration of thirty (30) days after publication.

STATE OF MICHIGAN)

HALF A MILLION MAVERICKS — Miss Silvia Wood bought a milestone last week, a Maverick milestone. The Los Angeles secretary bought the 500,000th Maverick sold since the car was introduced in April 1969. Since its introduction, Maverick has been America's best selling domestic small car. Ford dealers sold a whopping 340,809 of them the first year. Above her with the buyer is Bill Coberly, sales manager of Los Angeles' Coberly Ford where she bought the milestone Maverick.

Scouts set drive

Boy Scout Troop No. 793, sponsored by St. Anthony's Parish of Belleville, will hold a paper drive on Oct. 3 from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Collections of paper will be taken up at the rear of St. Anthony's Church of W. Columbia Ave.

Director named

The appointment of Francis L. Purcell, M.D., to the position of Medical Director, effective Sept. 1, was announced by J.S. Garlick, General Manager of the Hydra-matic Division of General Motors Corporation.

Previous to this appointment, Dr. Purcell was plant physician for the Fisher Body Division, Coldwater Road Plant, Flint, Mich.

Dr. Purcell, a veteran of 16 years with General Motors, was born in Iron River, Michigan, Dec. 4, 1918. He graduated from Ypsilanti's Roosevelt High School, attended Eastern Michigan University (formerly Michigan State Normal College) and received his medical degree from the University of Michigan in 1943.

He served two years in the U.S. Army from 1944 to 1946 and was discharged with the rank of captain. From 1946 until his joining General Motors in 1954, Dr. Purcell spent three years in residence at the University of Michigan and six years in private practice in Owosso and Goodrich, Mich.

Dr. Purcell will reside in Ann Arbor, Mich., with his wife, Germaine and their seven daughters. He is past president of the Michigan Industrial Medical Association and is currently a delegate to that organization.

Educator added

Mulugeta Eteffa, a curriculum consultant on leave from his Ministry of Education educational position in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, has joined the Wayne County Intermediate School District staff for the 1970-71 school year as a consultant in the field of international education.

For the past three years the Wayne County Intermediate School District has been fortunate in being able to secure the services of educators from India, Nigeria, Thailand, and Uganda. Eteffa's appointment continues this unique educational service.

From September to June, 1971, Mulugeta Eteffa will be a member of the Wayne County Intermediate District consultative staff serving the 37 local school districts, including Detroit. This International Education position with the Intermediate District is made possible by the Fulbright-Hayes Exchange Program.

Eteffa will be working with local school districts and county-wide educational organizations.

For his ten months' stay in the Wayne County Intermediate School District, Eteffa will be in residence at 70 W. Alexandrine, Detroit, Michigan, with his wife, Gennet, and ten-month old son, Koricho.

St. Mark's church is home for nursery

St. Marks Lutheran Church, located at 1515 Harris Rd., Ypsilanti, is the new home of Jumping Jack Cooperative Nursery.

Members of the nursery have been busy moving furniture, toys and supplies to the new location in preparation for the opening of school Sept. 21.

The spacious, well lighted facilities are being readied for parental inspection at the orientation meeting scheduled for Tuesday, Sept. 15 at 8 p.m.

Teachers Mrs. Sue Johnson and Mrs. Barbara Root will be on hand to meet parents and answer any questions they may have regarding the nursery program. An invitation has been extended to Mrs. Shirley Daly of the Social Services Department of Washtenaw County to come and speak at the orientation meeting.

Jumping Jack Cooperative Nursery is licensed by the State of Michigan and is operated as a non-profit organization for pre-school children.

Four-year-old children meet on Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 9 to 11 a.m. and three-year-olds meet on Tuesday and Thursday from 9 to 11 a.m. There are some openings presently available.

Anyone interested in more information or enrolling their child in nursery may contact Membership Chairman, Mrs. Doris Kruger, at 482-2201.

36 HOUR FURNITURE SALE THURSDAY-FRIDAY-SATURDAY

An important message to all homemakers!

It has been a trying summer and one filled with all kinds of frustrations making it almost impossible to keep our inventory in proper balance. Therefore, We are having a sale taking about half of our inventory and marking it down to cost or less.

We have 31 sofas that are being sold at one low price of $199.00. These were sold originally for as much as $499.95. These are honest to goodness values that you don't believe until you see them. All colors, and all styles. We'll deliver them to you free.

Bedroom sets have not been selling as fast as they should been. Because of this situation we have about 9 sets that are "last one", selling for 4, 5, or six hundred dollars, that will be sold for $178, $248.00 and $298.00. You won't duplicate these values anywhere in the state, or maybe not in the entire country. It's a big statement to make, but it's true, and we'll prove it to you.

We have five different dinette sets that has been discontinued. Over $3000.00 each set; you can buy any of them at one low price of $168.00. Of course there are plenty of sets we can sell you for 58.00 68.00 or 78.00 and they too represent good savings.

How about a new mattress or box spring's how about saving 20.00 or 30.00 on each one of them. Come in, we'll show you it's possible. The same holds true for tables, lamps, appliances, wall decor, carpets, room size rugs or anything you might need to make your home more pleasant, and comfortable.

Come in, we can't list everything but we promise you won't be disappointed. Use your credit, of course and refurnish your single room or complete house. The savings are there, yours for the taking.

Again, this sale is for Thursday Friday and Saturday only. No layaways, No special orders at these prices.

Now the hidden camera boys have come up with the whereabouts nationwide of people who tend to smile the most. In descending order, smiles are said to be most frequent in: 1. The Deep South. 2. The Pacific Coast. 3. The Midwest. 4. The Atlantic Seaboard. 5. The Northeast. Interesting. Believe they left out the one state where the citizenry smiles more readily than anywhere else, however. That's Hawaii.

When a man and a woman talk together, the woman looks at the man's face at much greater length than the man looks at the woman's. What is that?...As to that question of whether a rattlesnake can kill a hog, a knowledgeable client says no, never ever the hog's fat neutralizes the venom...If you want some notion of how time flies, try to recall from memory the names of all seven original Mercury astronauts. Not one American in 100 can do it.

Language man - In speaking earlier of a blush, maybe I didn't make it clear exactly what a blush is. It's this: "A temporary, erythematic, or caloric effulgence of the physiognomy; superinduced by a reaction in the sensorium, eventuating in a paresis of the vasomotor filaments of the facial capillaries, which becoming invested with hyperelasticity, permit a superabundance of hemoglobin to turbidify the subepidermal vesicles, this causing a suffused radiance to emanate from the countenance." Read that back, Cynthia.

Understand it's gone up considerably in the last 10 years 'cause pollution is messing up the sturgeon in the Caspian Sea...Q. "Where in the Bible does it say, 'God helps those who help themselves'?" A. Nowhere. Ben Franklin said that.

Consider this - Brain of an ant has only some 250 cells. A bee's brain, approximately 900 cells. Your brain and mine, about 13 billion cells. This in part explains why we do not find it necessary to bite or sting one another to death, but have advanced so far we are able to murder our own species with nerve gas and atomic bombs.

General tendencies: You have a good chance now to put in motion new ideas and plans that can bring you the goodwill and assistance of your associates. Be sure you think in lofty terms in order to get the best possible results. Show your brain power.

Aries (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) If you handle dull routines early, you can get into whatever activities please you the most. Make arrangements for a more orderly way of living. Think more about the future.

Aaurus (Apr. 20 to May 20) Listening to what experts have to say is wise now if you want those new ideas developed soon. Showing more devotion to the person you really love brings excellent response. Take it easy tonight.

Gemini (May 21 to June 21) Good day for visiting good friends and showing your affection, enjoying delightful camaraderie. Then show you have true social grace at the social affairs of the evening. Dress appropriately.

Moon Children (June 22 to July 21) Making a fine impression on higher-ups is very wise at this time. Showing that you are a perfectionist at your work helps you to advance. Handle those civic affairs well.

Leo (July 22 to Aug. 21) Many fine ideas are running around in your head. Concentrate on the best and all is fine. Otherwise they do you no good. Obtain information from clever persons. Take advantage of every opportunity that arises.

Virgo (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) If you think up some way of handling obligations that is more efficient, they will soon be behind you. Use a new method to bring greater happiness with loved one. Evening can then be delightful.

Libra (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Associates and pals will now cooperate fully so that your relationships are improved considerably. Repaying any social debts is wise now. Express devotion to loved ones. Don't be extravagant, though.

Scorpio (Oct. to Nov. 21) There are responsibilities in the outside world that require study and plenty of effort to discharge properly, so get busy early. Get the right fellow workers to assist you. Show others that you are a clever person.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) You need the inspiration now to gain your finest wishes, so get busy working on new ideas that have much merit. Your creativity is high. Use it. Join worthwhile persons at the social tonight.

Capricorn (Dec. 22 to Jan 20) Being sure to keep the promises you have made to kin is important now, so get busy at these matters early. Showing others your finest qualities brings fine results. AVOID extravagance.

Quarius (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Work on whatever will give you a new impetus to getting along better with partners in the morning since you are inspired. Use more modern methods to get projects working more effectively. Count costs.

Pisces (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Get right to the core of the money problems ahead of you and show others you can work very enthusiastically. Listen to what a financial wizard has to suggest. Follow ideas very sensibly.

If your child is born today...he or she will be one of those delightful young people who is able to handle responsibility in such an efficient manner that higher-ups are impressed. Give as fine an education as you can. Learning will come so easy to this brilliant person that it will be taken almost for granted. The fields of research, exploration of any kind are particularly fine here. Teach ethics early.

"The Stars impel, they do not compel." What you make of your life is largely up to you.

Belleville Lake Club elects new officers

The Belleville Lake Ski Club held their annual meeting last Thursday and elected new officers for the coming year.

Officers elected are: Ed Stackwell, president; Hanno Fontaine, vice president;

Kriss Fontaine, secretary and treasurer; Carolyn Peterson, publicity; Naria Doonan and Ron Hink, membership committee; and Debbitt Hink, program committee.

The club has a very successful year, it was reported. The club placed fourth in the state tournament and presented two shows on Belleville Lake.

The club officials hope to put on more shows next year and scheduled the events to bring more business into Belleville.

The club officers issued thanks to the Belleville Area Chamber of Commerce for letting the club use the chamber's address system for the show; to the Kiwanis Club for setting up their stand at the show and to the Huron Valley Conservation Association for assistance in behalf of club-sponsored shows and for the invitation from the H.V.C.A. to attend its corn roast.

The people of Belleville and local areas were also thanked by the ski club for their support.

Collector at lecture

The Northville Springs Chapter of China Painters will present a lecture by Rev. Miss Elizabeth Etz, Thursday, September 24, at Westland Center, located at Warren and Wayne Rds., at 1 p.m.

Miss Etz's lecture is entitled "Hummels Are My Hobby." She just returned from a trip to Salugua, Germany where she visited the Kloster Seissen where Berta Hummel took her vows.

This trip completed a dream of Miss Etz that she has had since she started collecting Hummel Prints around 1930. She has now a complete collection of the world renowned artist Berta Hummel.

Miss Etz received her Master of Arts degree from Boston University. In 1964 she retired from the Wayne County Training School after 25 years service as a teacher and chaplain.

Registrations will be accepted till Friday

The last bell for enrollment in Romulus Adult Education and community college classes will ring Friday, Sept. 18.

Arrangements for classes can be made by calling Dale Nicholes, community-school director at 941-1600.

Among the programs offered through the continuing Education Committee are: Adult High School Completion, Adult Basic Education, Wayne County Community College and non-credit classes of a recreational nature.

Educational classes for high school credit are free to all, including senior citizens over 65 years of age.

Community College fees are $9 per credit hour. Non-credit classes will be $10. Classes can be initiated for any subject having 12 or more participants.

Angel, Huron Township supervisor; James L. Krause, township treasurer; Clarence R. Mead, chairman of the board; John Bardoni, branch manager; William A. Tilmann, vice president, supervisor of branches; and Arthur S. Boluch, vice president, marketing.

Conservationists take canoe trip

The Huron Valley Conservation Association held their second canoe trip of the season on Aug. 29 and 30.

Twenty men endured an all-day rain and temperatures in the low 40's on Saturday to paddle approximately sixty miles on the Pine River, west of Cadillac.

Saturday evening, a steak dinner was prepared and a "bull session" around the campfire preceded a good night's rest. On Sunday, the weather was much nicer and the men continued down river to the planned conclusion of the trip.

Because the Pine River is not an easy stream to navigate, all but one of the canoes capsized during the two-day trip.

The men were prepared for the worst, and most of them dressed in just swim suits and tee-shirts.

The cooking of Gordon Bellaire, Rodney Bly, and Blake Frey was appreciated by all.

The preparations and arrangements for the trip handled by the clubs president, Ken Reed, and the success of the outing was proof of a job well done.

Kiwanian named

The installation of Olin H. Wyman, prominent Belleville resident and retired banker, as Lieutenant Governor of Division Nine of the Michigan District of Kiwanis International will be held at the three-day Michigan Convention in Port Huron, Michigan.

The convention will open on Sept. 17 and run through Sept. 19.

Local Kiwanis Club officials attending the installation are:

Archie Gauthier, president; Bert Smith, president-elect; Donald Meyers, second vice president; and Kenneth Daniels, governor elect.

Wyman, who resides at 13020 Edgedale Dr., is presently treasurer of Belleville Kiwanis Club.

Remember what you decided last January 13?

Wasn't that the day your dried-out nasal passages really got to you? Your peeling wallpaper took a turn for the worst, and your last favorite plant collapsed into the dust! Didn't you say something like "I've had it! We've got to get some humidity into this house!"

Well, this heating season, why not play it smart. Be comfortable from the beginning! All your dry-air problems can be solved with a West Bend Automatic Humidifier. That's all. It doesn't even cost much. And just think, all that spring-fresh humidified comfort will feel like a winter vacation.

icipal at Edgemont School; Sanford Cook, high school teacher and president of the Van Buren Education Association; Mrs. Marjorie Bock, Quirk School teacher; and Mrs. Barbara Boulter teacher at Edgemont School.

Sumpter School teacher; Mrs. Stella Bialas, Edgemont School teacher; Miss Marjorie Lingenfelter, and Mrs. Eva Luper, both school nurses.

Shriners to gather

Red fezzed Shriners, 15,000 strong from five Great Lakes states and Ontario will be in Detroit, Sept. 17 through 19 for the annual convention of the Great Lakes Shrine Association.

The big event of the three-day conclave will be the Shriners parade down Woodward Avenue starting at 2 p.m. on Saturday, Sept. 19. Many new and colorful units have been added since the last Shrine parade here in 1959.

The public will see Detroit's own Arabian horse troop, Indianapolis' Champion Silver Palominos and Chicago's famed black horse prancers, as well as big bikes, little bikes, Indians riding bikes, all coming from 22 cities and Ontario, that comprise the Great Lakes Association.

Precision drill teams in colorful costumes, brass bands, Oriental bands and clowns by the hundreds will stop and entertain youngsters as they march down the parade route.

Governor William Milliken, has proclaimed Sept. 13 through 19, "Michigan Shrine Week" and Detroit Mayor Roman Gribbs has proclaimed Saturday, Sept. 19 "Detroit Shrine Day."

In proclaiming Michigan Shrine Week, Gov. Milliken paid high tribute to Shriners everywhere. He praised their financial support of North America's 22 famed Shrine Hospitals for crippled and burned children.

MEETING THE SUPERINTENDENT — Mrs. Mona Salisbury, Edgemont Elementary School teacher, meets and confers with Dale E. Kaulitz, superintendent of Van Buren Public Schools at the teachers' first general meeting held on Sept. 8, at the Belleville High School Auditorium.

On Viewing the Sunrise

What sweeter music to the ears than birds heralding the morning,

The meadow lark is calling, all who like to rise at dawning,

To view the glorious brilliant sky with color so intense

That man is felt so small indeed And God to be immense.

My husband sleeps by yon window the sunrise leaps,

Id wake him -- but I better not.

MOTORED group defends itself

To the Editor:

MOTORED is a very good organization formed by dissatisfied parents. Yes, People for Huron, "dissatisfied parents", not "John Birchers". People who are upset with educational methods of today. These people want decency brought back to their schools and to their society as well.

Cement blocks irk Belleville teenager

To the Editor:

On Labor Day I noticed a pile of cement blocks along the shore of the lake o High St. I went over to look and I saw that there were two piles of cement blocks. One you can see from High St., the other is pushed down towards the lake.

To me this is not only pollution but littering, and breaking the law. What good are the blocks doing there? They are not only a big eyesore, but a hazard for children waiting for school bus, or playing there.

Why is dumping allowed when there are "No Dumping" signs posted. Who is going to take care of it? The taxpayers, or are we going to take care of it? The taxpayers, or are we going to leave it and look at it for generations to come, or will the blocks end up in the lake to add to the pollution there already?

I'm sending a copy of this letter to the mayor, and chief of police, and the editor of this paper, with hope that something will be done about removing this eyesore and they will start enforcing our laws better.

Cheryl Thompson-age 15, 305 High St. Belleville

MOTORED residents are not communists

To the editor:

In last week's issue of the Romulus roman, we were pleased to read the article stating the fact that we are in the majority of MOTORED representatives. Yes we are the "90 per cent other citizens." We are not John Birchers any more than we are Communists.

We are concerned parents who are doing their duty as citizens to see that our children receive the education they deserve.

WE know that the American School Board Journal which you quoted from is not easily obtained by lay people or others not familiar with school surroundings. It must have taken a great deal of time to research all of the documented magazine material you used.

We would like to thank you for your concern regarding our group in helping to inform the public and in clearing up any misunderstandings.

As quoted from your article "Right Wing opponents often import out of town critics to fan local conflagration. . . It seems strange that the people of our organization for the most part are life long residents of Huron Township of relative of sid residents. We are not passers through.

As far as finances are concerned, yes we are financed. We are financed through the generosity of the good people around us that care a great deal about children and their futures. We are grateful for their support and will continue to use their donations for the betterment of our community.

Good schools and outstanding educational opportunities are first steps in keeping a good community.

Michigan tourism gets an unexpected boost

A continued slowdown in the economy plus the threat of a recession has given Michigan tourism an unexpected boost this summer, reports the Automobile Club of Michigan.

"Many vacationers were scared by talk of a recession traveled in Michigan rather than take expensive trips to other sections of the country," states Jerry E. Fisher, Auto Club's touring manager.

Fisher believes that summer tourism generally is up five per cent although in portions of western Michigan the increase is closer to 20 per cent because of the salmon fishing boom.

"Although the overall gain is well below 1969 when Michigan tourism rose 20 per cent, the summer tourist trade has been highly successful in view of rising unemployment due to factory layoffs and the drop in automotive production," says Fisher.

Only in southeastern Michigan has there been a decline, attributed mainly to the fishing ban currently in effect on Lake St. Clair and St. Clair and Detroit rivers.

The ban — imposed because of possible mercury contamination of fish in these waters — has been in operation since April. It was eased by Gov. Milliken on May 30 to allow fishing on a catch-and-release basis.

Earl Velger of Velger Marina on Lake St. Clair says the fishing ban has cost him over $80,000 in summer receipts while several other marina operators there claim business has dropped between 25 and 60 per cent.

Along the western coast, however, Lake Michigan salmon fishing has provided the spark that has ignited a record-breaking summer season. Charter boat bookings are 25 per cent ahead of last season.

Biggest tourism increases are coming from the heart of the "Coho Coast," especially between Muskegon and Frankfort. On several recent weekends, including the first full day of the Labor Day holiday, so many boats have been out on Lake Michigan and some tributaries that more fish were getting away than caught because of snagged lines.

In Ludington, Jerry Colly, executive vice president of the Chamber of Commerce, says sales tax on goods sold and services rendered is up 10 to 15 per cent over the first eight months of 1969. "We were concerned at the beginning of the year because business was slow," explains Colly, "but from the end of June to the present, everything picked up tremendously."

Demands for lodging and camping facilities along Lake Michigan have been so great that fishermen have been staying 50 to 75 miles inland, which has helped pump additional revenue into cities farther inland.

Available camping space has been at a premium on several occasions due to three factors: salmon fishing, excellent weather in July and August and an increased interest in camping.

There has been a twenty-six per cent increase in camping fees at Ludington State Park this summer over last. Traverse City and St. Joseph state parks have had 20 per cent more turnaways than a year ago.

Interest in camping also has grown on a state-wide basis. Through the latter part of August, total attendance at state parks was seven per cent ahead of 1969.

The failure of Lake Huron salmon fishing and a trend toward shorter vacations has kept the eastern section of the state from making significant gains in tourism.

While tourism remained about even with 1969 in east Michigan, it increased 10 per cent in the UP, according to Bob Helwig, secretary-manager of the Upper Peninsula Tourist Association.

Helwig attributed this growth to improved weather conditions, added popularity of state and private parks and reduced tolls for crossing the Mackinac Bridge, which have been in effect the past two years.

Travel was up six per cent over the Big Mac Bridge for the first eight months this year over last.

Economic slowdown or not, it is expected when the final tabulations are in that Michigan residents will have poured more than $600 million into the state's tourist industry this summer.

Commissioners look at equal employment

Expansion of Wayne County's human relations staff to enforce the equal employment requirement contained in county contracts is recommended by a committee of the County Board of Commissioners.

Commissioner William L. Dunbar, of Detroit, D-District 10, chairman of the Human Relations Committee, said his committee is recommending that the board expand the staff of the Office of Human Relations from six to nine employees.

Under contract compliance procedures adopted recently by the Board of Commissioners, business firms may be declared ineligible for county contracts if found to be discriminating on grounds such as race in hiring and promotions.

"We considered the alternative of contracting with the city of Detroit Commission on Community Relations to handle the job," Dunbar said. "But the committee decided there are strong reasons for expanding our own staff instead."

Dunbar said he believes enforcement would be more effective because the County Office of Human Relations reports directly to his committee and would have closer liaison with county departments.

"The city was willing to assign one full-time and one part-time staff member to the program at an annual cost of $16,100 to the county," Dunbar said. "For only $12,000 more a year, we can put three employees on the job."

THE Human Relations Committee is recommending that the Board of Commissioners add $12,000 to the $16,100 already budgeted for the compliance program.

"The purpose of the program is to review the employment practices of present contractors and bidders for future county business to be sure they are equal opportunity employers," Dunbar explained.

The contract compliance procedures also hold prime contractors responsible for discriminatory practices by their subcontractors.

In cases of violation, the Office of Human Relations may recommend that the Board of Commissioners declare a violating firm ineligible for county contracts. Present contractors could be sued for breach of contract.

Executive serves as Michigan Week deputy chairman

Frank T. Buchanan, public relations supervisor for Michigan Bell Telephone Company, Detroit, will again be deputy general chairman at large working with state committees on the 18th annual Michigan Week.

The appointment was announced today by Fred R. Charlton of Sturgis, general chairman for Michigan Week 1971 and administrative assistant to the president of Kirsch Company.

As deputy general chairman at large, Buchanan works directly with chairmen of the six Michigan Week activity boards under which 100 state committees are grouped. He has been involved with Michigan Week activities for 15 years.

Buchanan is coordinator for Michigan Bell's 29 Junior Achievement companies and special events. He is a member of the general committee for the Detroit-Windsor International Freedom Festival.

Mr. and Mrs. Buchanan live at 3225 Merrill, Royal Oak. They have six children and 14 grandchildren.

Dates of the 18th annual Michigan Week are May 15 to 22, 1971.

Singles to meet

The Tuesday's Single Club (25 and over) meet every Tuesday night at the WMCA in Ann Arbor.

Club officials announced Monday that all "first timers" will be admitted free Tuesday, Sept. 22.

Demonstrations set for course

Instructors from the Gabriel Richard Institute will give free demonstrations of their leadership techniques course in the metropolitan Detroit area during the week of Sept. 20.

In announcing this program, Father Thomas J. Bresnahan, director of the institute, promises that those who attend "will have demonstrated quick and easy methods for bettering self-confidence, speaking in public, improving memory, handling people, improving personal motivation and developing other skills that give that 'slight edge' needed to practice leadership in their club, home, school, church, organization, or at work."

Persons from all walks of life are welcome to the demonstrations. There is only a modest fee for the course due to the nonprofit status of the Gabriel Richard Institute.

Enrollment in the class can be made at the demonstration sessions or by calling WO 5-5890.

NOTICE LAST DAY TO REGISTER FOR THE GENERAL ELECTION TO BE HELD ON TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1970

To the Qualified Electors of the Township of Sumpter, State of Michigan

Notice is hereby given that in conformity with the "Michigan Election Law", I, the undersigned Township Clerk, will upon any day, EXCEPT Sunday, and a legal holiday, the day of any regular, or special election or primary election, receive for registration, that name of any legal voter in said Township not already registered, who may APPLY TO ME PERSONALLY or (Authorized Substitute) for such registration, providing however, that I can receive no names for registration during the time intervening between the close of registration for the GENERAL ELECTION and the day of such election.

Notice is hereby given that I will be at the Sumpter Township Hall, 23483 Sumpter Road, on SATURDAY,

SEPTEMBER 26, 1970

from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., and from 8:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1970

For the purpose of REVIEWING the REGISTRATION AND REGISTERING SUCH of the qualified electors in said Township as SHALL PROPERLY apply therefore,

The name of no persons but an ACTUAL RESIDENT of the Township at the time of registration, and entitled under the Constitution, if remaining such resident, to vote at the next election shall be entered in the registration book.

ROBERT D. MARBLE, CLERK
SUMPTER TOWNSHIP

TOWNSHIP OF SUMPTER NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

WHEREAS, the Township of Sumpter Planning Commission with the assistance of Vilcan-Leman & Associates, Planning Consultants, has formulated a basic plan for the development of the Township, financially aided through a Federal grant from the Department of Housing and Urban Development, and has formulated a Township Zoning Ordinance for the Township as a whole to implement the said basic plan, therefore, pursuant to the provisions of Act 184 of Public Acts 1943:

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that a public hearing will be held by the Township of Sumpter Planning Commission on the 8th day of October, 1970 at 8:00 p.m. in the Township Hall at 23483 Sumpter Road, in the Township of Sumpter, for the purpose of granting any person interested the right to be heard by the Township Planning Commission on the Township of Sumpter Zoning Ordinance, the tentative text and maps of which are available for inspection in the office of the Township Clerk at the Township Hall, during regular business hours.

ROBERT D. MARBLE, Township Clerk
